LETTERS TO PARTICIPANTS/ CARTAS A LOS PARTICIPANTES

Dear Conference Participants,

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, Administration, Faculty, Staff, and Students of the University of Dallas I welcome you to the annual Ministry Conference of the School of Ministry. The University of Dallas is the only Catholic university in the North Texas region, and we have a proud tradition of upholding and celebrating our Catholic identity within an academically rich and intellectually rigorous setting. We also recognize our obligation to serve the educational needs of the Church and the more than one million Catholics who live in the area.

The School of Ministry is the arm of the University of Dallas whose explicit mission is to serve the educationally needs of the local dioceses. One way in which it accomplishes this mission is to partner with the Diocese of Dallas in offering this ministry conference. We hope that by “walking together in faith” the University of Dallas, the Diocese of Dallas, and all of us who attend this event will be enriched by our common belief in Jesus Christ, his presence in the Eucharist, and how that calls us to live.

I look forward to seeing you here at this conference. Should you wish to learn more about the University of Dallas, I invite you to visit our campus on Friday for lunch and a brief tour. Look through this conference program booklet for more information.

Have a wonderful conference!

Frank Lazarus
University of Dallas President

University of Dallas

Estimado participante,

A nombre del Consejo de Administración, del personal docente y administrativo y todos los estudiantes de la Universidad de Dallas les damos la más cordial bienvenida a la Conferencia Anual para los Ministerios de la Escuela para los Ministerios. La Universidad de Dallas es la única universidad católica en el norte de Texas, y hemos mantenido nuestra identidad católica con orgullo dentro de un ambiente académicamente rico e intelectualmente riguroso. Reconocemos nuestra obligación de servir las necesidades de educación de la Iglesia y a los más de un millón de católicos que viven en esta región.

La Escuela para los Ministerios es el brazo de la Universidad de Dallas, cuya misión es servir a las necesidades de educación de las diócesis locales. Una de las formas en que se cumple con esta misión, es que en conjunto con la Diócesis de Dallas se ofrece esta Conferencia para todos ustedes. Esperamos que “caminando juntos en la fe”, la Universidad de Dallas, la Diócesis de Dallas y todos los que participemos en este evento, sea una experiencia enriquecedora por nuestra creencia común en Jesucristo, su presencia en la Eucaristía, y la manera en que somos llamados a vivirla.

Espero verlos en la Conferencia. Si desean saber más sobre la Universidad de Dallas, los invito a recorrer sus instalaciones el viernes 24 durante el horario de la comida.

¡Que tengan una excelente Conferencia!

Frank Lazarus
University of Dallas President

University of Dallas
Dear Conference Participants,

Welcome to the University of Dallas Ministry Conference offered in cooperation with the Diocese of Dallas. As one of the largest dioceses in the United States, we are proud to be able to offer such a high quality conference.

Over the course of these two and half days, we will strive to “walk together in faith” in such a way as to make a positive difference in our parishes, schools, and larger communities. Our speakers, exhibitors, musicians, artists, and volunteers have worked tirelessly to create this conference experience to enrich our faith. As you look through this booklet you should find many sessions appealing.

This conference is designed for all of us, including pastors, priests, deacons, religious, parish catechetical leaders, educators, teachers, principals, parents, youth, and everyone else “in the pew.”

We anticipate that this conference will continue to grow and become nationally known and recognized in a few short years as we celebrate our “walking together in faith.” Next year we will be at the Dallas Convention Center, October 22-24, 2009.

I am pleased to be able to speak to you in the keynote sessions, and hope you will join me for the liturgy on Saturday evening. Once again, welcome to the conference.

Faithfully in Christ,

+Kevin Farrell

Most Reverend Kevin J. Farrell, D.D.
Bishop of Dallas

Estimados participantes de la Conferencia,

Bienvenidos a la Conferencia Anual para los Ministerios 2008 de la Universidad de Dallas ofrecida en colaboración con la Diócesis de Dallas. Como una de las más grandes diócesis de los Estados Unidos, estamos orgullosos de poder ofrecerles este tipo de conferencias de alta calidad.

En el transcurso de estos dos años y medio nos esforzaremos por ‘caminar juntos en la fe’ de tal manera que hagamos una diferencia positiva en nuestras parroquias, escuelas y la comunidad en general. Nuestros oradores, expositores, músicos, artistas, y voluntarios han trabajado incesantemente para que esto sea una experiencia que enriquezca nuestra fe. Cuando revise este Program del Participante, usted va a encontrar muchas sesiones de gran interés.

Esta conferencia ha sido diseñada para todos nosotros, incluyendo párrocos, sacerdotes, diáconos, religiosos, líderes parroquiales de catequesis, educadores, profesores, principales, padres, jóvenes y todos los demás fieles de la iglesia.

Anticipamos que esta conferencia continuará creciendo y será nacionalmente conocida y reconocida en poco tiempo, mientras celebramos el ‘caminar juntos en la fe’. El próximo año realizaremos este evento en el Centro de Convenciones de Dallas, del 22 al 24 de octubre del 2009.

Me complace el poder dirigirme a ustedes en las sesiones principales, y espero que nos acompañen a celebrar la Eucaristía del sábado por la tarde. Una vez más, bienvenidos a la Conferencia.

Fielmente en Cristo,

+Kevin Farrell

Muy Reverendo Kevin J. Farrell, D.D.
Obispo de Dallas
SESSIONS ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 24 / SESIONES VIERNES 24 DE OCTUBRE

Keynote Speaker at 9:30 - 10:30 a.m.

Most Rev. Kevin J. Farrell, Bishop of Dallas
Trinity Ballroom

Session 1 at 10:45 - 11:45 a.m.

Most Rev. William B. Friend, Bishop Emeritus of Shreveport
Disciples of Jesus in Action - Trinity II
This presentation will focus on the five basic dimensions of ministry; consider four steps to effective ministry; and reflect on the primary focus always needed in serving the Church.

Tammy Amossen, Author, Special Angel
Caring for God’s Special Angels - Dogwood
How do we walk with those who might not be able to? With our extensive workloads and never ending to do lists we might be missing the opportunity to be ministered to by our special needs community. These angels (messengers) are prophetic witnesses of the gospel message of love. Let’s explore ways our parish communities can be inclusive with our special needs family members.

Gene Giulano, Instructor, UD School of Ministry
How Does the Faith That Is Your Inheritance Become the Faith of Your Choice? - Trinity VI
Whether we were baptized as infants or initiated into the church at a later time, our faith initially is a faith inherited. This session asks the question, “Does the survival of our faith depend upon it becoming a faith of personal choice?” It invites participants to consider how believing because of the word of another can become believing because they have heard for themselves (cf. John 4:42a).

Anna Scally, President of Cornerstone Media, Inc.
Helping Teens Pray...The Other Six Days of the Week - Trinity IV-V
Imagine helping teens pray more meaningfully. Get teens excited about their spiritual journey and about praying. Finish this workshop with proven principles to challenge teens to lead prayer, and to participate actively in retreats and ministry settings. As a bonus to you, watch your own conversation with God become more alive as well!

Elizabeth Madero, Director of Youth Ministries — Kearney, MO
This is my ‘Real’ Job: the Joys and Struggles of being a Parish Minister in your 20’s or 30’s - Magnolia
More and more young adults are seeking pastoral ministry degrees in college and are looking at parish life as their career. Young adults in ministry have different needs, but as we discern our vocations how does our job change? How to maintain balance in professional, spiritual and personal life. Looking at ourselves, as young adults, as professionals.

Annette Gonzalez Taylor, Communications Director, Diocese of Dallas
Communication Tools at the Parish - Elm
How do you get the media to cover the good news about your parish? What do you do when bad news happens at your church or school? With nearly 20 years of experience in broadcast news, Annette Gonzales Taylor, brings experience from inside the newsroom to help participants understand how to more effectively communicate with the media and within the diocese.
Angeline Hubert, Assistant Director CBS, Instructor, UD School of Ministry
Women of Faith in the Judeo-Christian Tradition - Pecan

Miriam, Deborah, Ruth, Mary the Mother of Jesus, Mary Magdalene, the Samaritan Woman, Felicity and Perpetua, Teresa of Avila and Dorothy Day are among the many women of faith who have gone before us. This session will explore their stories and reflect on how they can be models for us in our own faith journeys.

Joan Weber, Coordinator, Young Adult Ministry Services, Center for Ministry Development
Becoming a Young Adult Responsive Parish - Mesquite

This workshop assists parish leaders to look at what they are currently doing in young adult faith formation, assessing how responsive these offerings are, and learning strategies and programs to meet the unique generational needs of Generation Xers and Millennials.

Rev. Robert Hater, Professor & Author
Finding God in the Stories of our Lives: A Pastoral Approach to Faith Formation - Sunnyside

Fr. Hater reflects on the significance of stories in light of the hope chest experience: The Role of Narrative in the Faith Life of Catholics. He develops the relationship between basic belief and story, stressing that both are necessary. Taking his cue from “Jesus the Storyteller”, he indicates how stories help us better see God’s presence in the family, work, and parish.

Dr. Pilar Calva, Bioethics Expert & Professor
Matters of Life & Death - Chinaberry

One of the manifestations of the culture of death, is not to respect the beginning of life. In this conference, the scientific arguments of the beginning of life will be presented, as well as some of the issues that threaten human life.

Dr. Dan Luby, Tscheppe Chair of Homiletics, UD School of Ministry
Everybody Teaches, Everybody Learns - Trinity III

How do we continue — even improve — the vital work of teaching kids what we believe and what difference it makes day to day, and still respond to increasingly urgent calls for adult faith formation? This session explores some concrete ways to take seriously the goal of “life-long learning,” without jeopardizing the work we’re already doing (or our sanity).

Julie Richey, Mosaic Artist, Dallas, TX.
The Building Committee and the Artist: Mission, Collaboration, and Process - Trinity VII

In commissioned works of sacred art, the Parish Building Committee and the Artist work together to draw out the great stories and mysteries of our Catholic Faith. This session will explore what such work calls forth in us, share examples of sacred imagery, and suggest fundamentals for a workable process to help the building committee communicate to the artist its vision for works of sacred art which will inspire, catechize, and endure through generations.

Claire M. Wing, Liturgical Artist, Dallas, TX.
The Building Committee and the Artist: Mission, Collaboration, and Process - Trinity VII

See Julie Richey detail.

Richard Chei, Composer, Arranger & Producer, World Library Publications
Seeds for Good Ground - Washington Irving

This workshop is an opportunity to experience exciting music to enhance worship, enabling your good ground to yield a fruitful harvest.
Major Address at 1:15 - 2:15 p.m.

Bill Huesch, Author
_Dreams and Visions: Pastoral Planning for Lifelong Faith Formation_ - _Trinity Ballroom_
We who work in parish ministry today must keep in mind the Core Work to which the parish is called. That Core Work is set for us by Christ himself, and is shared by all parishes in the Church. If we stick to it, we succeed in helping to establish the Reign of God. If we wander away from it, we find ourselves in confusion. In this address, Bill Huesch will renew our vision and excite our spirits to embrace this Core Work and make it part of everything we do in the parish!

Session II at 2:30 - 3:30 p.m.

Dr. Regina Pfaffer, Professor of Religious Studies, Chaminade University of Honolulu
_We Come To Your Feast - Chinaberry_
This session will correlate the themes of the Jewish Feasts with the celebration of Christian Liturgy, particularly the Mass. During the Second Temple Period, faithful members of the Jewish Community gathered annually for three major feasts: Passover, Pentecost and Booths. These three feasts symbolized different aspects of the Exodus Event.

Dr. Robert J. McCarty, Youth Ministry & Author, National Federation for Catholic Youth Ministry
_A Snapshot of Catholic Young People: The Pain and the Promise - Trinity IV-V_
Have you noticed the changes in young people these past ten years? Our pastoral ministry with young people in schools and parishes has been greatly affected by the post modern context. This workshop will identify several critical factors impacting our ministry, characteristics of millennial spirituality, and elements of a new map for effectively responding to young people.

Gene Giuliano, Instructor, UD School of Ministry
_Catholic Understanding of Justification by Faith - Trinity VI_
The Joint Declaration on the Doctrine of Justification by the Lutheran World Federation and the Catholic Church describes the doctrine of justification as “...more than just one part of Christian doctrine. It stands in an essential relation to all truths of faith.” This session examines the Catholic perspective on the meaning of the doctrine of justification and its importance as a reality to be proclaimed in word and sacrament.

Dr. Dorothy Jonaitis, Assistant Professor, UD School of Ministry
_Faith and Hope Intertwined: Reflections on Apocalyptic Literature - Washington Irving_
The basis of faith is rooted in our experience of God’s love in our past experience. That faith grows when we realize that we cannot take one step without hope that God will always be with us on our journey. For ultimately, God will triumph over evil and the reign of God will blossom to its fullest extent. This process is what motivated the apocalyptic writers to envision a future where evil would be overcome.

Rev. Patrick Hannon, Campus Ministry & Author
_Walking the Road of Mercy: A Journey Worthy of our Lives - Magnolia_
Fr. Patrick Hannon, explores the themes of mercy, compassion, and forgiveness as constitutive of the Christian journey, using story-telling as the means to draw us deeper into the experience of God’s love that has no rival.

James McGill, Instructor, UD School of Ministry
_Book of Job - Trinity VII_
The Book of Job has much to teach us about life, about God, about evil. This is not an easy book to read or understand. Few ponder in depth the difficult and disturbing questions it raises. We will join those few in listening to God, to Job and to Job’s friends speak about the mystery of human suffering and try to discern for ourselves how we can live, as Job did, with both honesty and faith in the midst of the human condition.
Rev. Patrick Madden, Adjunct Professor, UD School of Ministry
Real Presence, Ministry to the Sick and the Dying - Dogwood
This workshop is designed for those who minister to those who are home bound, residents of nursing homes, to those who are hospitalized, as well as to those in hospice programs. The workshop will explore the theological implications for ministry of the manifold presence of Christ.

Rev. Lawrence Boadt, President, Publisher, Author, Paulist Press
Psalms: Contemporary Insights into Ancient Prayer - Trinity II & III
Reading the Psalms as an important part of our spirituality enriches our personal prayer and helps us in ministry to others. We will show how modern scholarship has discovered the importance of understanding the Psalter as a whole rather than as a collection of hymns from which to choose our favorites.

Jim Urbanus, Fundraising Consultant
The Local Parish and School: A Powerful Partnership - Pecan
The relationship between a parish and school can be a very delicate balance. The goal is to find ways in which both the school and parish can serve students and their families. Discover ways to build relations that are win-win for both ministries and how working together can provide new opportunities for the future.

Margaret Gillet, Director of Dallas Tribunal
Tribunals: How They Work...How You Can Help - Elm
Overview of Tribunals in General, Overview of Dallas Tribunal in Particular: Mission of the Dallas Tribunal including definition of a declaration of matrimonial invalidity and the processing of a matrimonial nullity case.

Andrew Hill, Adjunct Professor, UD School of Ministry
Tribunals: How They Work...How You Can Help - Elm
See Margaret Gillet detail.

Pedro Moreno, Director of Hispanic Ministry, Archdiocese of St. Louis
Foundations for a Theology of Migrants and Itinerant People: Sacred Scripture and Contemporary Papal Magisterium - Mesquite
Session III at 3:45 - 4:45 p.m.

Dr. Regina Pfeiffer, Professor Religious Studies, Chaminade University of Honolulu
We Come To Your Feast - Chinaberry
This session will correlate the themes of the Jewish Feasts with the celebration of Christian Liturgy, particularly the Mass. During the Second Temple Period, faithful members of the Jewish Community gathered annually for three major feasts: Passover, Pentecost and Booths.

Gary Daigle, Composer, Artist, Producer of Pastoral Music
Expressing Our Faith in Song - Trinity I
This workshop will discuss the church’s documents on music and how to put these guidelines into pastoral practice. Come and sing!

Lyle Novinski, Artist, Designer, Professor, University of Dallas
From Gravy to Godly: Extreme Makeover, Church Edition - Elm
Ecliptic concerns can resonate with theological ones in the design of sacred space. The visual elements within a worship space should meet the theological needs for good worship. We will examine several churches wherein renovation and new construction succeed in joining the beautiful and the theological.

Diana Dudoit Raiche, Executive Director of Religious Education, NCEA
Liturgical Catechesis: Integrating People into the Mystery of Christ - Trinity IV-V
Liturgical catechesis is a "mystagogy" according to the Catechism of the Catholic Church. This session will explore the catechetical method as mystagogy, in light of the work of contemporary writers, as foundational for a practical application of the method to sacramental catechesis, and highlight the challenge it poses for contemporary catechesis.

Barbara Scalfi
Budgeting for Non-Profits 101 - Trinity VIII

Dr. Matthew Ogilvie, Online Education Coord. & Assistant Professor, UD School of Ministry
Religion and Terrorism in the Modern World - Sunnyside
This presentation will draw on a tour of Israel that Dr. Ogilvie undertook last June as an academic fellow of the Foundation for the Defense of Democracies. The presentation will focus on Islamic terrorist movements and will explore some of the religious motivations and driving forces behind terrorism today.

Jean Weber, Coordinator, Youth Adult Ministry Services, Center for Ministry Development
All Ages Learning Together - Strategies for Intergenerational Faith Formation - Mesquite
This workshop identifies the benefits of generations learning together, the practices which support effective intergenerational learning and various ways to do intergenerational learning. We will look at creating programs for intergenerational learning as well as taking traditionally age-specific faith formation and making intergenerational connections with them.

Rev. Joe Telford, Director of Montserrat Jesuit Retreat House
Spirituality - Dogwood
In this session we will discuss the spirituality of lay ministry as rooted in Ignatius of Loyola and the Jesuits. Discovering the history, spirituality, spiritual exercises, and training of spiritual companions will give us a new experience of a 'worldly' spirituality for walking together in faith.
Dr. Juliet Mousseau, Assistant Professor, LD School of Ministry
Growing in Relationship with God: Spiritual Wisdom for Today - Magnolia
The spiritual life is centered on Jesus Christ and the working of the Holy Spirit in the human heart. The "interior castle" of Teresa of Avila, the "cloud of unknowing" of an anonymous Englishman, and the "ladder of humility" of Bernard of Clairvaux use visual imagery to explain spiritual growth. These and other images help us today to develop and to express our own relationship with God.

Jim Urbanus, Fundraising Consultant
The Local Parish and School: A Powerful Partnership - Pecan
The relationship between a parish and school can be a very delicate balance. The goal is to find ways in which both the school and parish can serve students and their families. Discover ways to build relations that are win-win for both ministries and how working together can provide new opportunities for the future.

Barbara Landregan, Director of Catholic Conference & Formation, Safe Environment, Dallas
Safe Environment - Trinity VI
This presentation will focus on the need for training classes for our employees, volunteers, priest and deacons. Why is training so critical for our safe environment program to be successful? Why do people who have served from many years in a ministry suddenly need training?

Anna Scally, President of Cornerstone Media, Inc.
Tune In: Use their issues, teach to their issues, touch their hearts! - Trinity II & III
This workshop will show you that young people's issues are found in their culture and expressed in popular music and media. And so are the solutions to their concerns. You will learn effective, practical and easy to use strategies to catechize through music that they are already listening to. This approach works!

Pedro Moreno, Director of Hispanic Ministry, St. Louis
Pastoral Recommendations Regarding Human Mobility: Welcoming the Immigrant - Trinity VII

Tammy Amosson, Author, Special Angel
Caring for God's Special Angels - Washington Irving
How do we walk with those who might not be able to? With our extensive workloads, projects, and never ending to do lists we might be missing the opportunity to be ministered to by our special needs community. These angels (messengers) are prophetic witnesses of the gospel message of love. Together, let's explore ways our parish communities can be inclusive with our special needs family members.

This is my “Real” Job - the Joys and Struggles of being a Parish Minister in your 20's or 30's - Magnolia
This session focuses on Young Adults finding their gifts and finding a place to use them in their parish and how to maintain balance in professional, spiritual and personal life. Young adults are craving more...but where do they go? What do they do when they are still single in our 20's and 30's, or married without children?

Anna Scally, President of Cornerstone Media, Inc.
Helping Teens Pray...The Other Six Days of the Week - Trinity VI, VII & VIII

The Work of God’s People in Remembering, Participating and Anticipating - Trinity II
The event of Jesus, the Paschal Mystery, was of such great importance that his earliest followers celebrated it weekly by gathering together. Our Mass is the most important liturgy we pray, the summit and fount. Liturgy, and particularly Mass, is a ritual that invited us to remember, to participate and to anticipate God’s salvation. This session will invite participants to deepen their understanding of how the Liturgy celebrates what God has done for us.
Rev. Robert Hater, Professor & Author
When a Catholic Marries a Catholic or a Non Catholic. What about Catholic Identity and Creating a Catholic Home Environment? - Sunnyside
This session considers the Catholic family in light of stories and pastoral insights. It stresses the need to create a healthy Catholic home environment as the groundwork where Catholic identity takes root and deepens. The session offers practical insights for parishes to minister more effectively to today's families in ways that are vital for the future of vibrant Catholic communities.

Mick Tune, RSI, Vice-President
Spirituality of Giving - Pecan
Learn how to communicate the spiritual nature of giving to your parish. Discover the basic fundamentals for increasing stewardship through: Sharing the parish needs, cultivating relationships, inspiring donors to action, and inviting them to partner with you to make a difference.

This session explores some concrete ways to take seriously the goal of "life-long learning," without jeopardizing the work we’re already doing (or our sanity).

Julie Richey, Mosaic Artist, Dallas, TX.
The Building Committee and the Artist: Mission, Collaboration, and Process - Elm
In commissioned works of sacred art, the Parish Building Committee and the Artist work together to draw out the great stories and mysteries of our Catholic Faith. This session will explore what such work calls forth in us, share examples of sacred imagery, and suggest fundamentals for a workable process to help the building committee communicate to the artist its vision for works of sacred art which will inspire, catechize, and endure through generations.

Clare M. Wing, Liturgical Artist, Dallas, TX.
The Building Committee and the Artist: Mission, Collaboration, and Process - Elm

Book of Job - Chinaberry
The Book of Job has much to teach us about life, about God, about evil. This is not an easy book to read or understand. Few ponder in depth the difficult and disturbing questions it raises. We will join those few in listening to God, to Job and to Job’s friends speak about the mystery of human suffering and try to discern for ourselves how we can live, as Job did, with both honesty and faith in the midst of the human condition.

Jesse Manibusan, Co-founder of 2 by 2 Ministries
Our Youth Shouldn’t Be A Priority! - Trinity III
Get your attention? Raise your hand if you’re baptized. Congratulations! Ministry to young people belongs to the baptized. Whether your “field” is catechesis, liturgy, music, hospitality, faith formation, sacramental prep, or every other possible way we might serve, the care of the youth in the community is primary to the mission! Come see and hear the small ways to make a big difference!
Keynote Speaker at 10:45 - 11:45 a.m.

Most Rev. Kevin J. Farrell, Bishop of Dallas
Trinity IV & V

Session V at 1:15 - 2:15 p.m.

Rev. Lawrence Boadt, President, Publisher, Author, Paulist Press
St. Paul as the Model of Spirituality for the Minister - Irving Lecture
St. Paul was the pioneer Christian in establishing church ministries and reflecting on the spiritual life needed to sustain them. We will explore his life and letters as sources for the foundational relationship that each Christian needs to develop in and with and from Christ in ministry.

Anna Scally, President of Cornerstone Media, Inc.
Tune In: Use their issues, teach to their issues, touch their hearts! - Sunnyside
This workshop will show you that young people’s issues are found in their culture and expressed in popular music and media. And so are the solutions to their concerns. You will learn effective, practical and easy to use strategies to catechize through music that they are already listening to. This approach works!

Gene Giuliano, Instructor, UD School of Ministry
Lord, To Whom Shall We Go: The Challenge to Believe According to John’s Gospel - Trinity VII
The fourth evangelist claims that his purpose in writing is to generate faith that gives life. This session investigates the particular meaning of faith that is offered in John’s gospel, emphasizing the challenge to actively commit oneself to the person, Jesus, and to share an intimate relationship with him.

Daniel Lizaraga, Catholic Relief Services, Regional Director for Southwestern U.S.
The Path to Global Solidarity: Walking in Faith on the Journey of Hope - Trinity III
In walking together in faith, Catholics must consider the needs of society and the world. Participants will examine contemporary global issues and responses rooted in Catholic social teaching. Particular reflection on the words of Pope Benedict XVI, “(The Church) cannot and must not remain on the sidelines in the fight for justice” (Deus Caritas Est, no. 28).

Dr. Juliet Mousseau, Assistant Professor, UD School of Ministry
Growing in Relationship with God: Spiritual Wisdom for Today - Trinity I
The spiritual life is centered on Jesus Christ and the working of the Holy Spirit in the human heart. The “interior castle” of Teresa of Avila, the “cloud of unknowing” of an anonymous Englishman, and the “ladder of humility” of Bernard of Clairvaux use visual imagery to explain spiritual growth. These and other images help us today to develop and to express our own relationship with God.

Angeline Hubert, Assistant Director CBS, Instructor, UD School of Ministry
Women of Faith in the Judeo-Christian Tradition - Trinity VIII
Miriam, Deborah, Ruth, Mary the Mother of Jesus, Mary Magdalene, the Samaritan Woman, Felicity and Perpetua, Teresa of Avila and Dorothy Day are among the many women of faith who have gone before us. This session will explore their stories and reflect on how they can be models for us in our own faith journeys.

Dr. John Norris, Associate Professor, University of Dallas
Rome & Roman Catholicism - Magnolia
We often associate “Roman” with the Church as if it were one of the marks of the Church. Yet in the Nicene Creed, the four marks of the Church are one, holy, catholic, and apostolic. History reveals how the see of Rome came to understand her guidance and authority. For good and ill, that self-understanding was influenced by the Roman Empire.
Dr. Regina Pfeiffer, Professor of Religious Studies, Chaminade University of Honolulu
The Work of God's People in Remembering, Participating and Anticipating - Trinity II
The event of Jesus, the Paschal Mystery, was of such great importance that his earliest followers celebrated it weekly by gathering together. Liturgy, and particularly Mass, is a ritual that invited us to remember, to participate and to anticipate God's salvation. This session will invite participants to deepen their understanding of how the Liturgy celebrates what God has done for us.

Rev. Patrick Hannon, Campus Ministry & Author
Walking the Road of Mercy: A Journey Worthy of our Lives - Mesquite
Fr. Patrick Hannon, explores the themes of mercy, compassion, and forgiveness as constitutive of the Christian journey, using story-telling as the means to draw us deeper into the experience of God's love that has no rival.

Mary Ann Parks, Director Project Rachel, San Antonio
Conversion: The Church's Six Step Program - Chinaberry
Authentic evangelization/conversion is our Catholic recovery program. Its six steps are the template on which Bill W's 12 Steps were forged. The steps of authentic conversion can be facilitated in a practical way. Pastoral work based on this template is effective in reaching the whole person to encounter the Lord in all His saving power.

Jeff Rogalski, Men's Ministry
Self Awareness and Conscious Choice: A Model of Spiritual Formation - Trinity VI
This session will identify qualities, characteristics and associated behaviors of the four major archetypes: King, Warrior, Magician, Lover (energy potentials for the positive mature masculine) in both healthy/mature and unhealthy/immature forms. Sessions will identify and discuss biblical characters who exemplify these energies. Our ability to access these energies can provide a practical model of spiritual formation.

Mick Tune, RSL, Vice-President
Spirituality of Giving - Pecan
Learn how to communicate the spiritual nature of giving to your parish. Discover the basic fundamentals for increasing stewardship through: Sharing the parish needs, cultivating relationships, inspiring donors to action, and inviting them to partner with you to make a difference.

Dr. Dorothy Joravits, Assistant Professor, UD School of Ministry
Faith and Hope Intertwined: Reflections on Apocalyptic Literature - Dogwood
The basis of faith is rooted in our experience of God's love in our past experience. That faith grows when we realize that we cannot take one step without hope that God will always be with us on our journey. For ultimately, God will triumph over evil and the reign of God will blossom to its fullest extent. This process is what motivated the apocalyptic writers to envision a future where evil would be overcome.

Lyle Novinski, Artist, Designer, Professor University of Dallas
From Gaudy to Godly: Extreme Makeover, Church Edition - Elm
Esthetic concerns can resonate with theological ones in the design of sacred space. The visual elements within a worship space should meet the theological needs for good worship. We will examine several churches wherein renovation and new construction succeed in joining the beautiful and the theological.

Tammy Amosson, Author, Special Angel
The (Extra) Ordinary Holiness of Parenting - Washington Irving
The vocation of parenting is often misunderstood as something we innately know how to do. The reality is that this sacred relationship is in need of constant nurturing. Finding time, energy and the will to emulate the Good Shepherd can be challenging. This workshop will explore ways we can walk together in ordinary holiness by nurturing the spirit in both our children and ourselves.

Bill Huebsch, Just Living
Trinity IV & V
God calls us to look hard at our lifestyles and to choose to live more simply, sustainably, and in solidarity with people who are poor. This requires us to create a daily lifestyle that embraces such values. It calls us to teach our children about it. And it calls us to make simplicity, sustainability, and solidarity with the poor a way that we express and live the core teachings of the Gospel. This workshop will explore practical ways to take this home and both live it in your life, as well as teach it in your parish as a key part of lifelong faith formation. You will be offered access to powerful resources to help you both personally and in your parish, all rooted deeply in Catholic social teaching.

Major Address at 2:30 - 3:30 p.m.

Las escrituras, la justicia social, la catequesis y los textos que cantamos en la Misa - Irving Lecture
¿Realmente creemos lo que cantamos y proclamamos por medio de la música, o sólo queremos que el canto termine pronto? En esta sesión se hablará de lo importante que es "entrar en el canto" y vivir la música litúrgica plenamente - con nuestras voces, con nuestros corazones y con nuestras mentes. Se distribuirán recursos gratuitos y se presentarán varios ejemplos musicales. ¡Vengan listos para cantar como nunca antes!

Luis Medina, Coordinador General de formación en la fe para adultos de la Diócesis de Dallas
Las etapas de la vida espiritual - Trinity II
La presentación partió del silencio como condición indispensable para iniciarse en la vida espiritual, luego explicó la función de la creación en la vida espiritual y terminó con las tres etapas clásicas de la vida espiritual: purgativa, iluminativa y unívoca.

Alejandro Ordieres, Profesor ITESM e ITAM, especializado en ética y teología moral Los Milagros de la Virgen de Guadalupe - Washington Irving
Muchos estudios y hombres de ciencia han insinuado la imagen de la Virgen de Guadalupe y han encontrado misterios inexplicables. La Virgen de Guadalupe constituye así uno de los grandes enigmas para la ciencia en estos momentos. Portadora de un mensaje de amor y paz escrito a manera de un código azteca, la imagen de la Virgen nos muestra también una escritura con un lenguaje propio del hombre moderno: la ciencia.

Pbro. Abadito Cabos Gómez, Párroco, Iglesia Resurrección, Galveston TX.
El Catequista como discípulo favorito de Jesús - Magnolia
Desde el principio de la historia Sagrada vemos conociendo un sin número de personajes nombrados "profetas". Estos son especialmente invitados por Dios para ser portadores de su plan Divino; en el nuevo testamento Jesús nombra hombres especiales nombrándoles "Discípulos" para llevar la Buena Nueva de la Salvación; en la actualidad habemos muchos hombres y mujeres que vamos sumándonos a estos "discípulos" llamados Catequistas.

Arturo Monterrubio, Asociado Pastoral en la parroquia de San Jerónimo en Houston, TX.
La Catequésis y la Cultura en que vivimos - Chinaberry
La cultura en que vivimos ofrece en muchas ocasiones un contraste con el mensaje cristiano. Mientras más bienes materiales tienes, más veles. Exploraremos maneras de utilizar esta gran oportunidad que tenemos de vivir en una cultura materialista para que sea una fuente de vida en nuestro catequesis en el hogar y en la comunidad.

María Baccalandrino, Profesora Católica y Consultora en Organización y Entrenamiento
La importancia del Rol de la Mujer en el Proceso de Evangelización - Elm
Analizar a la mujer como eje del sistema familiar y cómo su trato con Dios y su lucha por la Santidad tiene un gran impacto en su familia y comunidad.

Pbro. David La Buda, Ministerio de Vocaciones, Congregación Marynoll
Las Teología de la Misión - Trinity VIII
La teología de Misión se ha cambiado radicalmente desde el Concilio Vaticano II. Padre David La Buda, M.M. presentó una exposición mostrando cómo la Iglesia ha cambiado su empeño misionero de salvar almas y plantar iglesias a ser una Iglesia que ve la obra misionera como la obra de Dios en construir El Reino. Con el desarrollo de la teología de Misión que contribuyeron los papas Pablo VI y Juan Pablo II, Misión para el siglo XXI será un esfuerzo de diálogo profetico.
Pía Septién, Instructora de la Escuela Bíblica Católica, Universidad de Dallas

Nuestros hermanos separados: Diferencias Básicas - Trinity VII

Esta charla busca explicar las diferencias básicas entre el Catolicismo y el Protestantismo y reconocer los lazos que nos une, empezando por la creencia en un solo Dios, la fealdad a Cristo Jesús, la aceptación de los Diez Mandamientos como código de conducta y el rezar el Padre Nuestro.

Juan Carlos Montenegro, Coad. Pastoral Juvenil, Str. Domingo Sosío, Bellflower, CA., y autor del libro “El Negocio de la Salvación”

Secretos para crear una Pastoral Juvenil profesional - Dogwood

Esta charla está dirigida a las personas que trabajan en la pastoral juvenil, se basa en el libro “El Negocio de la Salvación”. En la presentación se hablará de cómo podemos conocer más a los jóvenes con quienes trabajamos y cuál es nuestra responsabilidad como encargados de la pastoral juvenil. Si algún momento hay sentido que yo no sabes que hacer o quiere darle por vencido, esta conferencia te va a encantar, ya que hablar del regalo que Dios nos ha dado al trabajar con jóvenes.

La Familia en el Corazón de la batalla entre el bien y el mal - Trinity VI

El tema explica desde un punto bíblico y pastoral la realidad a la que el matrimonio se enfrenta hoy en día. Este le hará ver las diversas maneras en las cuales el mal trata de evitar que el matrimonio sea visto y tratado como lo que es, el signo por excelencia del amor de Dios entre un hombre y una mujer.

Dr. Pilar Calva, Médico genetista y bioético

Amenazas a la vida en sus inicios - Sunny Side

Uno de las manifestaciones de la cultura de la muerte, es no respetar el inicio de la vida humana. Se analizará por qué comienza cuando sólo es fecundado, y algunas formas en que es amenazada en sus inicios.

Daniel Lizárraga, Director Regional del Sureste de EUA, Catholic Relief Services

El Camino hacia la Solidaridad Global: Caminando con Fe en la Jornada de la Esperanza - Trinity III

Cuando caminamos juntos en la fe, nosotras los católicos tomamos en cuenta las necesidades de nuestra sociedad tanto como las del mundo. Los participantes de este taller examinarán temas contemporáneos e internacionales y las respuestas en el contexto de la Doctrina Social de la Iglesia Católica. El punto de referencia para la reflexión está basado en las palabras de nuestro Santo Padre, Benedicto XVI cuando dice, “[La Iglesia] no puede ni debe quedarse al margen en la lucha por la justicia” (Deus Caritas Est, no. 28).

Esperanza Montemar, Directora Asociada, Oficina de Educación Cristiana Continua, Arquidiócesis de Galveston-Houston

La Catequesis Comienza en el Hogar - Pecan

En esta presentación se dan ideas concretas a dirigentes catequéticos, catequistas, maestros de religión y a católicos en general para aprovechar todas las oportunidades de catequesis que tenemos en nuestra vida diaria, especialmente en el hogar. Compartiremos distintas formas de ver que “el hogar cristiano es el lugar en que los hijos reciben el primer anuncio de la fe.” (P1666 CIC)

La alegría y el sufrimiento en la educación de los hijos - Irving Lecture
En un mundo donde rige la ley del menor esfuerzo y el consumismo, el sufrimiento se presenta como el peor de los males y el placer como un surcedáneo de la verdadera alegría. Debemos enseñar a nuestros hijos el valor del sacrificio, no sólo como medio de redención, sino como una oportunidad de crecimiento y superación. Valorado así, el sufrimiento siempre viene acompañado de alegría y felicidad.

Luis Medina, Coordinador General de formación en la fe para adultos de la Diócesis de Dallas
Los etapas de la vida espiritual - Pecan
Esta será una presentación que considere los dos elementos fundamentales que la Iglesia pone en juego en la veneración a María y a los Santos: la intermediación y la santificación. Cómo se entiende en la Iglesia Católica la relación con Dios y por qué es necesaria una intermediación que aparentemente deja de lado la relación personal y directa con Dios.

Pbro. Eduardo González, Rector, Catedral Santuario de Guadalupe, Dallas, Texas
Comunicación y catequesis - Chinaberry
Somos primordialmente seres sociales, personas-comunidad. Jesús nos revela al Padre y se nos entrega a sí mismo como modelo de comunicación. Cómo promover el movimiento del saber al vivir. El proceso de catequesis se convierte en un reto para quien ha recibido el llamado de “dejar ver y entender con el corazón” que Dios Trino es el amor como modelo perfecto de comunicación y de comunión.

Pia Septién, Instructora de la Escuela Bíblica Católica, Universidad de Dallas
¿Por qué yo?: el dolor en la vida del cristiano (espiritualidad) - Trinity VI
Con frecuencia los cristianos, a quien nos ha enseñado que Dios es todo poderoso, todo amor, infinitamente sabio, infinitamente justo, nos preguntan: ¿Por qué a mí me sucede esto? ¿Por qué permitió Dios el dolor? Este conferencista busca ayudarnos a reconciliar la existencia de un Dios todopoderoso con el dolor humano, a empezar a entender el por qué del dolor, pero sobretodo busca ayudarnos a “sufrir mejor”.

John L. Allen Jr. is the prize-winning Senior Correspondent for the National Catholic Reporter, CNN's Senior Vatican Analyst, a frequent commentator for other media outlets, and the author of five books on the Vatican and Catholic affairs. The London Tablet has called Allen "the most authoritative writer on Vatican affairs in the English language." His work is admired across ideological divides; liberal commentator Fr. Andrew Greeley calls his writing "indispensable," while conservative Fr. Richard John Neuhaus calls Allen's reporting "possibly the best source of information on the Vatican published in the United States." According to Touchstone magazine, "Allen has achieved something remarkable, and that's genuine dialogue among sometimes competing voices in the Catholic Church." His weekly internet column, "All Things Catholic," is widely read as a source of insight on the global Church. Allen's current project is Mega-Trends in Catholicism: Ten Forces Turning the Catholic Church Upside Down, a survey of the most important currents shaping the future of Catholicism and what they will mean for the Church in the 21st century. John and his wife Shannon live in New York; John also maintains an office in Rome.

Tammy Anossom is an author, speaker, itinerant minister and workshop facilitator. She is the founder of Spiritual Fitness Ministry, dedicated to encouraging those seeking to live relationally in mind, body, soul and spirit. Tammy has a B.S. in Family Sciences and is getting her masters in Theology from the School of Ministry at the University of Dallas. She is the founder of Seize the Day, a support group for families who have children with Seizure Disorders; and founder of Mission Possible a local service outreach program dedicated to serving the needs of the local community. Anossom is the co-author of Wash Each Other's Feet: Healing our Spirit with Relational Ministry and is the author of Special Angel: Through the Eyes of Jac. Anossom might describe her prayer life as contemplative, yet most promote her as God's cheerleader. Her passion is the beauty of God's love manifested in and through relationships. Her hope is to inspire, encourage and ignite passion in each person's spiritual journey. Tammy and her husband Brett reside in Las Vegas with their four children.

LITURGICAL ART

You will see prints and posters of original artwork throughout the conference hall. The artists whose works are depicted represent the best quality of liturgical art in the area. These artists were all chosen and invited to participate in this conference by a committee of liturgical artists themselves. On behalf of the entire conference community, we extend our gratitude to the many artists whose works were selected to be part of this exhibit.

It is our intention next year, at the Dallas Convention Center, to have an entire room exclusively devoted to works of liturgical art. We all know that the church has had a long and venerable history of supporting the arts. One aim of this annual conference is to highlight and make known the current generation of liturgical artists, and inspire the next. Their work moves us to contemplate the sacred.

FRIDAY NIGHT BANQUET AND CONCERT
October 24, 2008 • Trinity Ballroom, Westin DFW

We are very pleased to announce that the Conference Program will include a special evening with John Allen followed by a musical concert featuring Richard Cheri, Gary Daigle, and Santiago Fernández. This Friday-Night Banquet and Concert will be held on Friday October 24, 2008 from 6:30 pm to 9:30p.m. at Trinity Ballroom / Westin DFW Airport Hotel. Come and Join us!

BANQUET SPEAKER

John Allen, from the National Catholic Reporter, will be the 2008 Ministry Conference Banquet speaker.

John L. Allen Jr. is the prize-winning Senior Correspondent for the National Catholic Reporter, CNN’s Senior Vatican Analyst, a frequent commentator for other media outlets, and the author of five books on the Vatican and Catholic affairs. The Lardon Tablet has called Allen “the most authoritative writer on Vatican affairs in the English language.” His work is admired across ideological divides; liberal commentator Fr. Andrew Greeley calls his writing “indispensable,” while conservative Fr. Richard John Neuhaus calls Allen’s reporting “possibly the best source of information on the Vatican published in the United States. According to Touchstone magazine, “Allen has achieved something remarkable, and that’s genuine dialogue among sometimes competing voices in the Catholic Church.” His weekly internet column, All Things Catholic, is widely read as a source of insight on the global Church. Allen’s current project is Mega Trends in Catholicism: Ten Forces Shaping the Catholic Church Upside Down, a survey of the most important currents shaping the future of Catholicism and what they will mean for the Church in the 21st century. John and his wife Shannon live in New York; John also maintains an office in Rome.

CONCERT MUSICIANS

The Friday Night Concert will begin at 8:00 pm with a performance by Gary Daigle from GIA, followed by Santiago Fernández from OCP, and will conclude with musical entertainment by the Good Sound Team of musicians led by Richard Cheri.

Richard A. Cheri lives with his wife, Cynthia, and son, Richo, in Montz, Louisiana, near his place of birth, New Orleans. Richard has earned a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology, a Master of Arts in Theology and a Master of Science in Teaching Mathematics. Besides being an adjunct professor of mathematics at Loyola University in New Orleans, adjunct professor of theology at Notre Dame Seminary, and at the faculty at the Institute for Black Catholic Studies at Xavier University, he presently teaches mathematics at Destrehan High School in Destrehan, Louisiana. Richard also serves as the Director of Liturgy and Music at Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church, the coordinating director of the Archdiocese of New Orleans Gospel Choir, and chairperson of the Archbishop James Patterson Lyke Liturgical Conference in New Orleans. He has toured with the Moses Hogan Choir and is a composer, arranger, and producer with World Library Publications.

Gary Daigle’s work as a composer, artist and producer of pastoral music continues to offer a wide range of musical, liturgical and pastoral experiences to parish ministers and liturgical artists. Presently the Associate Director of Music at a suburban Chicago, IL church, Gary has continued to evolve and produce music that not only serves the American church on a regular basis but that has helped shape the American church’s aesthetic profile. His recent contribution has been as liturgical consultant and music editor of the catechetical series “Christ Jesus, The Way” published by Benziger.

Santiago Fernández has been active in parish music ministry for the past 20 years. He is currently Music Minister at St. Michael Parish in Pontiac, Michigan, where he directs the English and Spanish choirs. Santiago also works for the Archdiocese of Detroit as Christian Ministry Consultant and is a frequent speaker and workshop presenter at events and conferences around the country in the area of Hispanic liturgical music. He holds a bachelor’s degree in music from Wayne State University in Detroit and is certified in both Pastoral Ministry and Liturgical Ministry, locally by the Archdiocese of Detroit and nationally by the USCCB’s Commission on Certification and Accreditation. A member of the National Advisory Council to the USCCB from 2000 to 2004, Santiago is currently Music Director for the National Catholic Council for Hispanic Ministry (NCCHM), instructor for the Institute of Holy Vida and Liturgy & Prayer coordinator for the First National Encuentro for Hispanic Youth and Young Adult Ministry 2006. He has also participated at various events of the Archdiocese of Detroit as guest conductor, cantor and consultant. Santiago won three Unity Awards from the UCMVA (United Catholic Music and Video Association) in October 2006, for best international artist, CD and song.

Kenneth W. Louis is the first graduate in the United States with a Bachelor of Music Degree in Ethnic (Gospel) Music Studies from the University of the District of Columbia. He holds a master of music degree from Morgan State University. He is an accomplished pianist, composer and arranger and has contributed to the only Catholic hymnal, Leau Me, Guida Me. Originally from Louisville, Kentucky, Kenneth is the minister of music at Holy Comforter-St. Cyprian Catholic Church in Washington, DC. He has received extended acclaim for his Masses of St. Cyprian.

W. Clifford Petty was born in Eufaula, Alabama. He completed his primary education in the Eufaula City Schools System and graduated from Eufaula High School in 1986. He received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Vocal Music Performance (1991) and Master of Music Education (1997) degree from Alabama State University, where he graduated Summa Cum Laude and received the Pressey Scholarship, which is the highest honor given to a music student. He is a truly acclaimed singer, musician, recording artist, producer, composer, and arranger with World Library Publications. Presently, he is the Pastoral Musician, and Artist in Residence Resurrection Catholic Church in Montgomery, Alabama. He also teaches music at Resurrection Catholic School.

Jalondra Robertson, is from New Orleans and a member of the Moses Hogan Choir and Singers, holds a Bachelor of Music degree from Xavier University. She teaches at Warren Easton High School in New Orleans. Jalondra is the minister of music at St. Gabriel the Archangel Catholic Church in New Orleans and she contributes immensely to the success of the Archdiocese of New Orleans Gospel Choir. She is an outstanding composer, arranger, and recording artist, with many of her works produced by World Library Publications.
