

The Braniff Graduate School of Liberal Arts presents

What is Just According to Nature? A Dispute Between Thomas Aquinas and Leo Strauss

Keynote Address: Dr. James Carey, Tutor, St. John's College, Santa Fe

Friday, April 1, 2022

- 10:30 am - 12 pm Graduate Student Seminar | SB Hall, Constantin Board Room (Room 328)
"Reflections on the Idea of Revelation"
Led by Dr. James Carey (St. John's College)
- 3 - 4:30 pm Panel | Cardinal Farrell Hall, Catholic Foundation Board Room (Room 219)
"Natural Law and Natural Right"
- Dr. Joshua Parens (University of Dallas), "Natural Right, Rational Commandment, and Natural Law: Carey's Relative Neglect of Persecution and the Art of Writing"
 - Dr. Timothy Burns (Baylor University), "Leo Strauss on Natural Right and the Changeability of Justice"
 - Fr. James Lehrberger (University of Dallas), "Leo Strauss' Mutual Exclusion of Theology and Philosophy: a Thomist's Dissent"
- 6 - 7:15 pm Keynote Address | Cardinal Farrell Hall, Catholic Foundation Board Room (Room 219)
"Religion as a Moral Virtue"
Dr. James Carey (St. John's College)

For more information, visit https://udallas.edu/braniff/braniff_life/conference_WJN.php.