

Braniff Graduate School of Liberal Arts

Master of Psychology with Clinical Concentration

Degree Requirements:*

- 60 Credit Hours of Graduate Course Work in Psychology
- Graduate Psychology Core (12 credit hours)
 - PSY 6311 Phenomenological Foundations of Psychology
 - PSY 6333 Foundations of Qualitative Research
 - PSY 5322 Lifespan Development
 - PSY 7331 Historical Foundations of Depth Psychology
- Pre-Practicum (12 credit hours)
 - PSY 5323 Professional Practice Ethics 1
 - PSY 6321 Introduction to Counseling Techniques
 - PSY 6355 Psychopathology
 - PSY 6324 Theories of Counseling
- Additional LPC Required Areas (24 credit hours)
 - PSY 6330 Principles of Therapeutic Practice
 - PSY 6325 Principles of Group Counseling
 - PSY 7340 Lifestyle and Career Development
 - PSY 6360 Developmental Psychopathology
 - PSY 6326 Addictions Counseling
 - PSY 5373 Professional Practice Ethics II
 - PSY 5337 Cultural and Multicultural Studies
 - PSY 6340 Marriage and Family Therapy

*This is a simplified checklist. See Bulletin for full degree requirements.

- Appraisal or Assessment Techniques (Choose 1)
 - PSY 7321 Cognitive Assessment
 - PSY 7322 Psychodynamic Assessment
 - PSY 7366 Rorschach Administration and Interpretation
 - PSY 7311 Existential and Psychodynamic Approaches to Psychopathology
- Electives (6 credit hours, PSY or other offerings approved by the Graduate Director, 5301 or higher)
- Practicum (7 credit hours)
 - PSY 5V57 Supervised Practicum (6 Credit Hours)
 - PSY 6157 Group Consultation for Practicum (Must be taken at least one term concurrently with practicum.)
- PSY 7095 Comprehensive Exam (0 Credit Hours)

