OUR promise

In travel, every moment matters. Pushing the experience from “good enough” to exceptional is what we do every day. Our mission is to empower group leaders to introduce their participants to a world beyond the horizon and inspire a lifetime of discovery. Travel changes lives.

“Our tour guide was phenomenal; he went above and beyond my expectations. His knowledge of the area and the history behind it was most impressive.”

Matthew L. Participant

trip itinerary - 5 days

Mar 16, 2021: Washington, DC

Welcome to the Nation's Capital! After meeting your Tour Manager at the hotel, be ready to catch your first glimpse of some of the amazing monuments and institutions here on your illuminated tour after dinner. You'll get to visit the memorials of some of the country's greatest leaders like Jefferson, FDR and Martin Luther King. (D)

Mar 17, 2021: Washington, DC

Begin your day with a visit to the remarkable United States Holocaust Memorial Museum to learn about the times leading up to, during and aftermath of this time in world history. After a lunch stop, visit the Grant Memorial and pause for a group photo in front of the U.S. Capitol followed by a guided tour. Please note: ACIS will make every effort to secure your group a tour at the U.S. Capitol; if this is not possible, groups will visit the Supreme Court or Library of Congress. Following dinner, pay homage to those who served in the Korean and Vietnam Wars with a visit to the Memorials. The evening will end with a visit to the Lincoln Memorial honoring the 16th President of the United States. (B,D)

Mar 18, 2021: Washington, DC

Start today by visiting the African American Smithsonian. Following lunch, transfer to the South Lawn of the White House for a photo opportunity of this famous landmark, then spend the afternoon visiting your choice of Smithsonian Museums on the National Mall. Whether you're most interested in history, space or art there truly is something to appeal to everyone with the many choices. Tonight, put on your dance shoes and get ready to dine and dance the evening away on a Potomac River Cruise. (B,D)

Mar 19, 2021: Washington, DC

Today you will visit Woodlawn Museum and Underground Railroad Experience Trail. Later this evening you will enjoy a Broadway style production followed by dinner at a local restaurant. (B,D)

Mar 20, 2021: Departure

Breakfast at the hotel, followed by a visit to the hallowed ground of Arlington National Cemetery. You'll get to witness the Changing of the Guard ceremony and watch the many intricate steps of this elaborate ritual. With an early reservation, if your group is interested, we can arrange for you to lay a wreath at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier. After lunch, depart for home. (B)

This is a preliminary itinerary for your group.

what you'll learn

1. Independence: Take charge of yourself and your schedule as you gain the courage to navigate new destinations, engage with local residents in real-world situations, and manage your time and money.
2. Flexibility: Develop skills to adapt and acclimate as you step outside your comfort zone, experiencing the cultural adjustments that come with new places, new foods, dynamic schedules and the wonderful idiosyncrasies of travel.
3. Teamwork: Learn respect, communication and collaboration—new settings and shared activities allow you to gain confidence at working together with both familiar faces and new acquaintances.
