Sincerely,

Russ Greene
Chief of Police
Academic excellence embodied in a rigorous Catholic education dedicated to a lifelong pursuit of wisdom, truth, and virtue.

The University of Dallas is dedicated to the pursuit of wisdom, of truth, and of virtue as the proper and primary ends of education. The University seeks to educate its students so they may develop the intellectual and moral virtues, prepare themselves for life and work in a problematic and changing world, and become leaders able to act responsibly for their own good and for the good of their family, community, country, and church.

The University understands human nature to be spiritual and physical, rational and free. It is guided by principles of learning that acknowledge transcendent standards of truth and excellence that are themselves the object of search in an education.

The University is especially dedicated to the pursuit of liberal education in both its undergraduate and graduate programs. In its liberal arts programs, the University is committed to the recovery and renewal of the Western heritage of liberal education. The University is equally committed to providing professional programs at the graduate level. Its professional programs, in a common spirit with the University’s liberal arts programs, are dedicated to reflecting critically upon the ends governing one’s own profession, to fostering principled, moral judgment, and to providing the knowledge and skills requisite for professional excellence. Whether professional or liberal, the University is convinced of the priority of the ethical over the technical, of the primacy of persons over things, of the superiority of the spirit over matter. The University seeks to offer those graduate and undergraduate programs that will address important needs of society, and that can be offered in a manner consistent with the University’s primary institutional commitments.

The University as a whole is shaped by the long tradition of Catholic learning and acknowledges its commitment to the Catholic Church and its teaching. The University is dedicated to the recovery of the Christian intellectual tradition, and to the renewal of Catholic theology in fidelity to the Church and in constructive dialogue with the modern world. It seeks to maintain the dialogue of faith and reason in its curriculum and programs without violating the proper autonomy of each of the arts and sciences. The University is open to faculty and students of all denominations, and it supports their academic and religious freedom. It thus seeks to provide an academic and collegial community which will help students acquire a mature understanding of their faith, develop their spiritual lives, and prepare themselves for their calling as men and women of faith in the world.

The University of Dallas is committed to the study and development of the western tradition of liberal education, and the Catholic intellectual tradition.

The University of Dallas understands human nature to be spiritual and physical, rational and free. It is guided by principles of learning that acknowledge transcendent standards of truth and excellence that are themselves objects of inquiry and research.

The University of Dallas is open to faculty and students of all faiths, and it supports their academic and religious freedom without discrimination.

The University of Dallas seeks to maintain the dialogue of faith and reason, while assuring the proper autonomy of each of the arts, sciences, and professions.

The University of Dallas promotes professional and graduate education that shares a common spirit with the liberal arts: reflecting critically on the ends governing the profession, fostering principled moral judgment, and providing the knowledge and skills requisite for professional excellence.
The University of Dallas is a Catholic university, with a vocation “dedicated to research, to teaching and to the education of students who freely associate with their teachers in a common love of knowledge.” (St. John Paul II, Ex corde ecclesiae, 1). The University recognizes that, in the words of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, all men and women are “created in the image of the one God and equally endowed with rational souls,” having “the same nature and the same origin.” (CCC 1934).

The equality of men and women “rests essentially on their dignity, as persons and the rights that flow from it.” (CCC 1935). Unfortunately, while we were “created for freedom,” we also bear “the wound of original sin, which constantly draws man towards evil.” (St. John Paul II, Centesimus annus, 25). But, as Pope Leo XIII explains, “no man may with impunity outrage that human dignity which God Himself treats with great reverence.” (Rerum novarum, 40). That is why the Second Vatican Council reminded the world that, “with respect to the fundamental rights of the person, every type of discrimination, whether social or cultural, whether based on sex, race, color, social condition, language or religion, is to be overcome and eradicated as contrary to God’s intent.” (Gaudium et spes, 29).

The responsibility to protect the rights of others does not fall, however, exclusively to the government. The University agrees with St. John Paul II that primary responsibility for protecting human rights belongs “to individuals and to the various groups and associations which make up society.” (Centesimus annus, 48). The responsibility to respect the dignity of others belongs to the University, and also to all who are members of this community. The University community should be animated by a spirit of freedom and charity and “characterized by mutual respect, sincere dialogue, and protection of the rights of individuals.” (Ex corde ecclesiae, 21).

As part of its living out of the Catholic faith, the University of Dallas is committed to providing work, living, and learning environments free from discrimination, harassment, and retaliation. The University does not tolerate conduct that is inconsistent with this commitment. The University’s Civil Rights Policy represents the policy of the University of Dallas, and is also in fulfillment of its duties under federal and state law, including, but not limited to, Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Americans with Disabilities Act, and their accompanying administrative regulations.

The University will not discriminate against any employee, applicant for employment, student or applicant for admission on the basis of race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, pregnancy, disability, veteran status, age, or religion, or any other protected category under applicable federal, state or local law, except as otherwise permitted by law.

Any member of the University community who acts to deny, deprive, or limit educational opportunities, employment, residential or social access, benefits or opportunities of any member of the campus community, guests or visitors on the basis of their actual or perceived membership in any protected category is in violation of University policy and may be subject to appropriate sanctions.

Retaliation Prohibited

The University takes reports of violations of the University Civil Rights Policy very seriously and will not tolerate retaliation against those who make reports or participate in the investigation or adjudication process. Any actual or threatened retaliation, or any act of intimidation to prevent or otherwise obstruct the reporting of a violation of the University Civil Rights Policy or the participation in proceedings related to a report of such violations, may be considered a separate violation of University policy and may result in disciplinary sanctions.

Inquiries about University civil rights, nondiscrimination, and Title IX policies and compliance or inquiries on how to file a complaint of discrimination should be directed to:

The University provides crime statistics in order to increase awareness and transparency, and in order to comply with the federal Clery Act. The University’s crime statistics identify the location of the incidents, whether on campus, in or on a non-campus building or property, or on public property. As to incidents that occurred on campus, the University also identifies which of those incidents occurred in dormitories or other residential facilities for students on campus.

A member of the University community who has reason to believe that there is a potential safety or security hazard on campus should notify the appropriate University official or office. The following offices are responsible for addressing many safety and security issues on campus:

- Facilities Department
  (972) 721-5296
- University of Dallas Police Department
  (972) 721-5305
- Information Technology Services
  support@udallas.edu

Business hours. During business hours, the University (excluding certain facilities, mostly housing) will be open to students, parents, employees, contractors, guests, and invitees.

Non-business hours. During non-business hours, access to all University facilities is by key, magnetic ID card, University of Dallas Police Department, and, in the case of housing, by Office of Student Affairs staff.

Prior written approval to the University of Dallas Police Department is required for access to University facilities for non-university affiliated contractors or visitors.

Residence halls. Access to residence halls is by key, magnetic ID card, University of Dallas Police Department, and Office of Student Affairs staff twenty-four (24) hours a day. Over extended breaks, the doors of all residence halls will be secured around the clock, and will be equipped with a lock separate from the student resident ID card access.

Exceptions. Some facilities may have individual hours, which may vary at different times of the year.

Emergencies. Emergencies may necessitate changes or alterations to any posted schedules.
The University of Dallas Police Department (UDPD) is responsible for promoting and maintaining community safety and security, enforcement of local, state, and federal laws, and compliance with general University policies.

General information. The University of Dallas Police Department has full-time police officers, as well as full-time officers in its Campus Safety Office. The Police Department and Campus Safety officers patrol the campus on foot and in vehicles, twenty-four (24) hours a day, and seven (7) days a week.

Campus Safety Office (CSO). The Campus Safety Office’s primary responsibility is to create and maintain a safe and secure work environment for students, faculty, and staff. The Campus Safety Office works under the authority of the University of Dallas Police Department. All CSO officers are certified in CPR, AED, and First Aid.

Police Department. The University of Dallas police officers are commissioned by authority of the Board of Trustees of the University of Dallas and are certified as peace officers by the State of Texas to provide police services for the campus. All UDPD officers are fully-equipped law enforcement officers with full police powers of arrest for offenses committed on property owned or controlled by the University of Dallas, as well when performing duties assigned to the officer by the University. UDPD officers have the same law enforcement powers as Irving Police Department officers and have the authority to make arrests on campus and, in certain circumstances, in all of Dallas County.

All UDPD officers undergo specialized, required training to enable them to better understand the nature of policing on a private university campus.

Relationship with Irving Police Department (IPD). The University of Dallas Police Department has a cooperative relationship with the City of Irving Police Department, including a written memorandum of understanding.

By agreement, the UDPD is the primary agency in dealing with most law enforcement response and investigative needs related to calls and offenses occurring on the University of Dallas campus. The UDPD may call upon the IPD for additional patrol or investigative assistance on any calls for services or criminal offenses occurring on campus.

In the event that the UD Police Department requests that the Irving Police Department become involved in an investigation of an offense on campus, the investigation will be conducted as a joint investigation by both agencies.

The Irving Police Department is the lead agency in investigations of homicide, suicide, or sexual assault and may take the lead on other major felony crimes.

Communication. The UD Police Department operates on the same radio communications system with the Irving Police Department.

Consequences of criminal activity. When students are involved in matters that constitute violations of local, state, or federal laws, the students are subject to arrest or citation as allowed by law. Additionally, in criminal cases involving students, the case will also be referred through the Office of Student Affairs for possible University sanctions and/or discipline.

Cooperation with Local Law Enforcement

The University of Dallas requires all student organizations to abide by federal, state, and local laws, as well as University policies and regulations.

Policy violations. The University may become involved in off-campus conduct of recognized student organizations or individual students when such conduct constitutes a violation of University policy or an applicable University code of conduct.

Off-campus housing facilities. The University of Dallas does not have any student organizations housed in off-campus facilities that are officially recognized by the University.

Reports from local law enforcement agencies. The University of Dallas Police Department receives regular (typically daily) neighborhood watch reports from the Irving Police Department, which report all crimes within a half-mile of the University. The report provides the UDPD with the type of crime reported and a general address and the UDPD can follow up with a request for additional information about specific crimes or incidents.

All local and foreign law enforcement agencies from which the University needs to request information for the University’s crime statistics are requested by mail. All reports that the UDPD receives, whether pursuant to those requests or otherwise, are reviewed, at a minimum as part of the preparation of the University’s crime statistics.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS ON SECURITY AND CRIME PREVENTION

The University provides a variety of opportunities for students, faculty and staff to learn about security and crime prevention. Those opportunities include, but are not limited to,

- All first year students are required to complete, prior to or during their first semester, the University’s program titled “Civil Rights and Sexual Violence: Reporting and Resources.” This program includes information on security and crime prevention.

- All first year freshmen are required to attend orientation sessions, including one in which the University of Dallas Police Department is able to provide information about security procedures and practices.

- All students who live on campus have hall meetings at the beginning of each semester, and as needed throughout the semester. The Resident Assistants use those meetings to discuss various policies and procedures, and to go over what to do and who to call in the case of an emergency.

- All students who live on campus are provided in their residence hall room a red emergency procedures booklet.

- All Resident Assistants are trained about security procedures and what to do in the case of an emergency. They receive the bulk of this training at the beginning of each semester, but it continues as needed throughout the semester.

- Each year, all student organization officers and faculty/staff advisors are provided risk management training, which covers various University policies such as civil rights, hazing, alcohol, transportation, and what to do in an emergency. The risk management training is also provided to student programming interns on the Campus Activities Board, as well as other Student Affairs interns (including for recreational sports and student organizations).

- All students receive a copy of the student handbook, via email, at the beginning of each semester. All employees receive a copy of the employee handbook at the beginning of their employment. Both the student and employee handbooks contain information about security and crime prevention.

- All students and employees receive, via email, the University’s Annual Security and Fire Safety Report or notice of its availability. The report includes information about security and crime prevention.
POLICIES ON ALCOHOL AND ILLEGAL DRUGS

ILLEGAL DRUGS PROHIBITED

Violations of United States, State and/or local laws regarding the possession, use, or distribution (whether or not by sale) of illegal drugs and controlled substances by students, employees, or visitors are violations of University policy and may result in disciplinary action.

Being in the presence of illegal drugs that are being openly and obviously consumed or possessed implies use or possession, respectively, and may result in disciplinary action.

Possession on campus of drug paraphernalia or items associated with the use of illegal drugs are prohibited and will be confiscated upon discovery. This includes, but is not limited to, bongs, hookahs, water pipes, roach clips, blow tubes, small scales, unidentifiable pills and razor-blades.

ALCOHOL RESTRICTIONS

The University expects that, if members of the University community, including students, employees, and visitors, possess or consume alcohol, they will do so in a temperate manner and in accordance with the Drug and Alcohol Policy and applicable laws.

Legal violations are policy violations. Violations of United States, State and/or local laws regarding the possession, use, or distribution (whether or not by sale) of alcohol by students, employees, or visitors are violations of University policy and may result in disciplinary action.

Underage drinking. The distribution of alcohol to or consumption of alcohol by someone under the age of twenty-one is prohibited, except as permitted by applicable law.

Employee-specific restrictions.

- On-campus and at University-sponsored events. Intoxication on-campus or at University-sponsored events off-campus to the degree that the employee may endanger him or herself or another, that detracts from the employee’s ability to perform the duties of the employee’s position, or that tends to bring the University into disrepute, is a violation of the Drug and Alcohol Policy.

- Use of motor vehicles and heavy machinery. For safety reasons, employees who operate university vehicles or equipment or who work under potentially hazardous conditions are prohibited from consuming alcoholic beverages while on the job, even if alcohol is served with meals or on celebratory occasions sponsored by the University.

Student-specific restrictions.

- Immoderate drinking. Immoderate drinking is prohibited. Immoderate drinking is defined as the use of alcohol, on- or off-campus, in a manner that results in intoxication or in behavior judged to be abusive, offensive, disorderly, unlawful, or dangerous to others and/or themselves.

- Paraphernalia. The possession of kegs, taps, mounted bottle openers, empty alcohol containers, and similar paraphernalia by persons who are not legally permitted to consume alcoholic beverages is prohibited and such devices will be confiscated.

- Empty alcohol containers (e.g., steins or wine bottles) that a student can prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, are used exclusively for decoration and not for consumption may be permitted at the discretion of the Dean of Students.

- Unless possession of the paraphernalia by the student-owner is illegal, the student-owner may be permitted to take the paraphernalia home/remove the paraphernalia from campus.

- Social hosts. Students hosting a party, whether on- or off-campus, must act responsibly as to the distribution and consumption of alcohol and/or controlled substances by their guests at the party.

- A student hosting a party is not acting responsibly when the student hosting (i) provides, sells, or serves alcoholic beverages to a person who is obviously intoxicated to the extent that the recipient presents a clear danger to the recipient or others; or (ii) knowingly serves or provides to a recipient who is under the age of twenty-one, or allows a recipient who is under the age of twenty-one to be served or provided, alcoholic beverages that contribute to the recipient’s intoxication. This subsection does not apply when the student hosting is the recipient’s parent, guardian, or spouse.

- Social host responsibility includes responsibility when the intoxication of the recipient is a proximate cause of damages to the recipient or a third-party, including the University. (adapted from Tex. Alco. Bev. Code § 2.02(b) and (c)).

Public consumption on campus.

- Aramark-controlled areas. The consumption of alcoholic beverages is permitted in the Rathskellar, but only when the alcoholic beverages are provided by the University’s food service contractor, Aramark. In addition, such beverages must be consumed in accordance with all applicable laws, regulations, and licensing requirements.

- University events. If a Department, University official, or an official student organization sponsors an event on campus at which fifty (50) or more people are expected, or at which people from outside the University community are expected to attend (e.g., public talks) and that involves the provision or consumption of alcoholic beverages, the Department, University official, or student organization must:
  - Provide non-alcoholic beverages as well (and any advertisements mentioning the provision of alcoholic beverages should also mention the availability of non-alcoholic beverages);
  - Arrange for reasonable methods to prevent persons from possessing, using, or distributing alcohol in violation of applicable law (e.g., using wristbands to prevent underage consumption); and
  - Arrange for the appropriate number of police officers when at least one hundred people are expected: one police officer for each one hundred people.

Student organizations. If an official student organization sponsors an event on- or off-campus that involves the provision or consumption of alcoholic beverages, the student organization must have the approval of the Dean of Students prior to the event and prior to any advertising for the event.

Private consumption on campus. The consumption of alcoholic beverages and the possession of open containers and alcoholic beverages by students, except at University events, are restricted on-campus to Aramark-controlled areas and residence hall rooms or student apartments, if all residents and guests of the room or apartment are of legal drinking age.

- Students of legal drinking age must store alcohol in an inconspicuous manner (i.e. in the refrigerator or closet).

- If one roommate is of legal drinking age and the other roommate is not of legal drinking age, no alcohol can be possessed, consumed or stored in the room or apartment. In triple and quad rooms, all students assigned to the triple or quad must be of legal drinking age for alcohol to be permitted.

- Students of legal drinking age are not permitted to consume alcohol in the rooms of underage students. Underage students may not be present in a residence where students who are of age are consuming alcohol.

- Residence hall and student apartment residents who are of legal drinking age who host a social event in their room or apartment at which there are alcoholic beverages are responsible for seeing that persons under the legal drinking age are not present and that there is no immoderate drinking at the event. The residents assigned to the room or apartment are also responsible for the behavior of their guests, damages, and cleanup.

SMOKING RESTRICTIONS

Smoking anything, including, but not limited to, cigarettes, cigars, pipes, cigarillos, and similar products, is strictly prohibited on campus in the following places:

- Inside any and all buildings, including, but not limited to, the residence halls and the student apartments;
- On the patios and balconies of the residence halls and student apartments, with the exception of Clark Hall;

- Inside any University-owned or leased vehicles; and
- Anywhere containing signage prohibiting smoking.

For purposes of the Drug and Alcohol Policy, use of electronic cigarettes, vapor cigarettes, and similar products fall within the category of smoking and are therefore restricted.

SANCTIONS

The University imposes disciplinary sanctions on students and employees for violations of the Drug and Alcohol Policy that are consistent with University policy and procedures, as well as applicable local, state, and federal law.

Policy violations. Violations of the Drug and Alcohol Policy may subject students and employees to sanctions in accordance with University policy and procedures.

Sanctions may include, but are not limited to, mandatory rehabilitation, expulsion or termination of employment, and referral for prosecution. In addition, items possessed in violation of the Drug and Alcohol Policy will be seized and destroyed or otherwise disposed of. Such items will typically not be returned.

Amnesty / Good Samaritan policy. A student who calls for emergency assistance on behalf of a person experiencing an alcohol or drug-related emergency will not be subject to disciplinary action for related violations of the Drug and Alcohol Policy. A student receiving emergency medical assistance due to use of alcohol or other drugs will be evaluated in order to provide the student with additional resources.

Texas law. Violations of Texas law may result in imprisonment up to life imprisonment, and fines of up to $300,000. For additional information, see https://www.dshs.texas.gov/drugs/controlled-substances.aspx

Federal law. Violations of federal law may result in imprisonment of up to twenty years, forfeiture of personal and real property used to facilitate certain offenses, and fines of between $1,000 and $4,000,000. For additional information, see https://www.deadiversion.usdoj.gov/21cfr/21usc/
The University provides a variety of opportunities for students, faculty and staff to learn about University policy, as well as state and federal law, on drug and alcohol abuse, the dangers of drug and alcohol abuse, and the availability of resources to assist those who have been affected by drug or alcohol abuse. Those opportunities include, but are not limited to,

• The Office of Student Affairs conducts events for Alcohol Education Week.

• The Office of Student Affairs provides an Alcohol Education Workshop that is generally available to students, and is required for students who have violated the University’s alcohol policy for the first time.

• The University provides access to mental health counseling and health services for students and employees.

• On a case by case basis, students and employees who have violated the University’s Drug and Alcohol Policy may be required to have random drug testing.

• All Resident Assistants are trained about drug and alcohol abuse issues. They receive the bulk of this training at the beginning of each semester, but it continues as needed throughout the semester.

• Each year, all student organization officers and faculty/staff advisors are provided risk management training, which covers various University policies such as drug and alcohol abuse. The risk management training is also provided to student programming interns on the Campus Activities Board, as well as other Student Affairs interns (including for recreational sports and student organizations).

• All students receive a copy of the student handbook at the beginning of each semester. All employees receive a copy of the employee handbook at the beginning of their employment. Both the student and employee handbooks contain information about drug and alcohol abuse.

• All students and employees receive, via email, the University’s Annual Security and Fire Safety Report or notice of its availability. The report includes information about drug and alcohol abuse.

The University of Dallas strongly opposes sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating and domestic violence, sexual exploitation and stalking (collectively, ‘sexual misconduct’), and seeks to assist those within its community who may have suffered from such misconduct.

The following definitions are part of the University’s Civil Rights Policies. The portions in a smaller font are corresponding definitions under Texas criminal law.

“Complainant” refers to the individual who is alleged to have been subject to Prohibited Conduct.

“Confidential Resources” refer to people that the University has designated as available to speak with and provide assistance to individuals who have experienced, have information about, or may have committed Prohibited Conduct, without obligation to provide personally identifiable information to the Office of Civil Rights and Title IX.

“Consent” is knowing, voluntary, and clear permission by word or action to engage in mutually agreed upon sexual activity. It is the responsibility of each party to make certain that the other has consented before engaging in the activity.
- A person who is incapacitated cannot give valid consent.

- For consent to be valid, there must be a clear expression in words or actions that the other individual consented to the specific sexual conduct.

- Consent to some sexual contact (such as kissing or fondling) cannot be presumed to be consent for other sexual activity (such as intercourse).

- Consent can be withdrawn once given, as long as the withdrawal is clearly communicated.

- A current or previous dating relationship is not sufficient to constitute consent.

- The existence of consent is based on the totality of the circumstances, including the context in which the alleged incident occurred and any similar previous patterns that may be evidenced.

- Silence or the absence of resistance is not consent.

- Resistance is a clear demonstration of a lack of consent. The absence of resistance does not demonstrate the presence of consent. Sexual activity that is forced is by definition non-consensual, but non-consensual sexual activity is not by definition forced.

Consent under Texas law means assent in fact, whether express or apparent. Tex. Penal Code § 1.07(a)(11). For purposes of sexual assault claims, an act is without the consent of the other person if: (1) the actor compels the other person to submit or participate by the use of physical force, violence, or coercion; (2) the actor compels the other person to submit or participate by threatening to use force or violence against the other person or to cause harm to the other person, and the other person believes that the actor has the present ability to execute the threat; (3) the other person has not consented and the actor knows the other person is unconscious or physically unable to resist; (4) the actor knows that as a result of mental disease or defect the other person is at the time of the sexual assault incapable either or appraising the nature of the act or of resisting it; (5) the other person has not consented and the actor knows the other person is unaware that the sexual assault is occurring; (6) the actor has intentionally impaired the other person’s power to appraise or control the other person’s conduct by administering any substance without the person’s knowledge; (7) the actor compels the other person to submit or participate by threatening the use force or violence against any person, and the other person believes that the actor has the ability to execute the threat; (8) the actor is a public servant who coerces the other person to submit or participate; (9) the actor is a mental health services provider or a health care services provider who causes the other person, who is a patient or former patient of the actor, to submit or participate by exploiting the other person’s emotional dependency on the actor; (10) the actor is a clergyman who causes the other person, who is a patient or former patient of the actor, to submit or participate by exploiting the other person’s emotional dependency on the clergyman’s professional character as spiritual adviser; or (11) the actor is an employee of a facility where the other person is a resident, unless the employee and resident are formally or informally married to each other. Tex. Penal Code § 22.011(b).

“Coercion” means unreasonable pressure for sexual activity. Coercive behavior differs from seductive behavior based on the type of pressure someone uses to get consent from another. When someone makes clear that they do not want sexual activity, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive.

“Dating Violence” refers to violence committed by a person who is or has been in a social relationship of a romantic or intimate nature with the victim. The existence of such relationship shall be determined based on the perception of the alleged victim; however, consideration shall also be given to: (1) the length of the relationship, (2) the type of relationship, and (3) the frequency and nature of interaction between the persons involved in the relationship. Dating Violence includes but is not limited to sexual or physical abuse or the threat of such abuse.

Dating violence under Texas law “means an act, other than a defensive measure to protect oneself, by an actor that: (1) is committed against a victim or applicant for a protective order: (A) with whom the actor has or has had a dating relationship; or (B) because of the victim’s or applicant’s marriage to or dating relationship with an individual with whom the actor is or has been in a dating relationship or marriage; and (2) is intended to result in physical harm, bodily harm, bodily injury, assault, or sexual assault or that is a threat that reasonably places the victim or applicant in fear of imminent physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or sexual assault.” Tex. Family Code § 71.0021(a).
“Domestic Violence” refers to the following types of violence:

- By a current or former spouse or intimate partner of the victim;
- By a person with whom the victim shares a child in common;
- By a person who is cohabitating with or has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse or intimate partner;
- By a person similarly situated to a spouse of the victim under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred; or
- By any other person against an adult or youth victim who is protected from the person’s acts under the domestic or family violence laws of the jurisdiction in which the crime of violence occurred.

Family violence under Texas law means: (1) an act by a member of a family or household against another member of the family or household that is intended to result in physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or sexual assault or that is a threat that reasonably places the member in fear of imminent physical harm, bodily injury, assault, or sexual assault, but does not include defensive measures to protect oneself; (2) abuse, as that term is defined in [the Family Code], by a member of a family or household toward a child of the family or household; or (3) dating violence.” Tex. Family Code § 71.004.

“Fondling” means the touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the other person, including instances where the other person is incapable of giving valid consent.

Fondling (indecent assault) under Texas law occurs when a person, without the other person’s consent and with the intent to gratify the sexual desire of the person: (1) touches the anus, breast, or any part of the genitals of another person; (2) touches another person with the anus, breast, or any part of the genitals of any person; (3) exposes or attempts to expose another person’s genitals, pubic area, anus, buttocks, or female areola; or (4) causes another person to contact the blood, seminal fluid, vaginal fluid, saliva, urine, or feces of any person. Tex. Penal Code § 22.012(a).

“Force” refers to the use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation (“implied threats”), and coercion that overcomes resistance or produces consent (“Have sex with me or I’ll hit you.” “Okay, don’t hit me, I’ll do what you want.”).

“Formal Complaint” is a document filed by a Complainant, or signed by the Director of the Office of Civil Rights and Title IX, alleging Prohibited Conduct by a Respondent and requesting that the University investigate the allegations of Prohibited Conduct.

“Harassment” means a form of discrimination based on a person’s membership or perceived membership in a protected category that includes physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct that is sufficiently severe or pervasive, and objectively offensive, such that it unreasonably interferes with, denies, or limits someone’s ability to participate in or benefit from the University’s educational, employment, social, or residential programs.

“Incapacitated” means a state of being in which a person cannot provide consent because the person is unable to understand what is happening or is disoriented, helpless, asleep or unconscious for any reason, including due to ingesting alcohol or other drugs (e.g., unable to understand the “who, what, when, where, why, or how” of the sexual interaction).

- A person’s incapacity may be inferred based on surrounding factors, including, but not limited to, hallucinations, black outs, seizures, vomiting, slurred speech, disorientation or lack of physical or mental coordination.
- Prohibited Conduct is not excused because the accused was intoxicated and, therefore, did not realize the incapacity of the Complainant. The standard that shall be applied is whether or not a reasonable person would have known based on the facts and circumstances presented that the other party was Incapacitated and therefore, not capable of consenting.
• A person may also be Incapacitated due to mental disability or involuntary physical restraint.

“Incest” means sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees prohibited by state law.

Incest under Texas law occurs when a person engages in sexual intercourse or deviate sexual intercourse with another person the actor knows to be, without regard to legitimacy, (1) the actor’s ancestor or descendant by blood or adoption; (2) the actor’s current or former stepchild or stepparent; (3) the actor’s parent’s brother or sister of the whole or half blood; (4) the actor’s brother or sister of the whole or half blood or by adoption; (5) the children of the actor’s brother or sister of the whole or half blood or by adoption; or (6) the son or daughter of the actor’s aunt or uncle of the whole or half blood or by adoption. Tex. Penal Code § 25.02(a).

“Prohibited Conduct” refers to any form of discrimination, Harassment, Retaliation, or failure to accommodate prohibited by the University Civil Rights Policy, including against any employee, applicant for employment, student or applicant for admission on the basis of race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, pregnancy, disability, veteran status, age or religion, or any other protected category under applicable federal, state or local law, except as otherwise permitted by law.

“Rape” means penetration, no matter how slight, of the vagina or anus with any body part or object, or oral penetration by a sex organ of another person, without the consent of the other person, including instances where the other person is incapable of giving consent.

Rape under Texas law occurs when a person intentionally or knowingly: (A) causes the penetration of the anus or sexual organ of another person by any means, without the consent of the other person, including instances where the other person is incapable of giving consent; (B) causes the penetration of the mouth of another person by the sexual organ of the person, without the person’s consent; or (C) causes the sexual organ of another person, without that person’s consent, to contact or penetrate the mouth, anus, or sexual organ of another person, including the actor. Tex. Penal Code § 22.011(a)(1).

“Retaliation” refers to any adverse action taken against a person participating in a protected activity because of that person’s participation in that protected activity, including participation by the accused. This includes, but is not limited to, any adverse employment or educational action taken for making reports of a violation of or other-wise participating under the University Civil Rights Policy, with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Office of Civil Rights, or any other human rights agency.

“Sexual Assault” means sexual contact that occurs without another’s consent, including in situations where a person is incapable of giving consent. Sexual Assault encompasses Rape, Fondling, Incest and Statutory Rape.

“Sexual Exploitation” refers to conduct in which an individual takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another, and that behavior does not otherwise fall within the definitions of Sexual Harassment or Sexual Assault. Examples of Sexual Exploitation include, but are not limited to:

• Sexual voyeurism, such as watching a person undressing, using the bathroom, or engaging in sexual acts, without the consent of the person observed.

• Taking pictures or video or audio recording of another in a sexual act, or in any other private activity, without the consent of all involved in the activity, or exceeding the boundaries of such consent (such as allowing another person to hide in a closet and observe sexual activity, or disseminating sexual pictures without the photographed person’s consent).

• Prostitution.

• Engaging in sexual activity with another person while knowingly infected with human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), a sexually transmitted disease (STD) or sexually transmitted infection (STI) without informing the other person of the infection.

• Administering alcohol or drugs (such as “date rape” drugs) to another person without his or her knowledge or consent (assuming the act, for instance, rape, is not completed).
• Exposing one’s genitals in non-consensual circumstances (including in an electronic format).

“Sexual Harassment” means a form of sex discrimination that includes unwelcome sex-based verbal, written, or physical conduct that:

• In the employment context, unreasonably interferes with the victim’s work performance or creates an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment.

• In the education context, is sufficiently severe, pervasive, or persistent that the conduct interferes with a Student’s ability to participate in, or benefit from, educational programs or activities of the University.

Examples of this type of activity may include, but are not limited to:

• Pressuring another to engage in sexual behavior for some educational or employment benefit (quid pro quo sexual harassment);

• Persistent unwelcome efforts to develop a romantic or sexual relationship;

• Unwelcome commentary about an individual’s body or sexual activity;

• Unwanted sexual attention;

• Repeatedly engaging in sexually-oriented conversations, comments, or horseplay, including the use of language or the telling of jokes or anecdotes of a sexual nature in the workplace, office, or classroom, even if such conduct is not objected to by those present; or

• Gratuitous use of sexually-oriented materials, not directly related to the subject matter of a class, course, or meeting, even if not objected to by those present.

The more severe the conduct, the less need there is to show a repetitive series of incidents to prove a hostile environment, particularly if the Harassment is physical. A single or isolated instance of Sexual Harassment may create a hostile environment if the incident is sufficiently severe.

“Stalking” means engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to: (1) fear for their safety and/or the safety of others; or (2) suffer substantial emotional distress.

For the purposes of defining Stalking:

• A “course of conduct” means two or more acts in which the stalker, directly, indirectly, or through third parties, by any action, method, device, or means, follows, monitors, observes, surveils, threatens, or communicates to or about a person, or interferes with a person’s property.

• “Substantial emotional distress” means significant mental suffering or anguish that may, but does not necessarily, require medical or other professional treatment or counseling.

• A “reasonable person” means a reasonable person under similar circumstances and with similar identities to the victim.

The definition of Stalking also extends to cyberstalking.

Stalking under Texas law occurs when a person, on more than one occasion and pursuant to the same scheme or course of conduct that is directed specifically at another person, knowingly engages in conduct that: (1) constitutes an offense of criminal harassment, or that the actor knows or reasonably should know the other person will regard as threatening: (A) bodily injury or death for the other person; (B) bodily injury or death for a member of the other person’s family or household or an individual with whom the other person has a dating relationship; or (C) that an offense will be committed against the other person’s property; (2) causes the other person, a member of the other person’s family or household, or an individual with whom the other person has a dating relationship to be placed in fear of bodily injury or death for the other person, a member of the other person’s family or household, or an individual with whom the other person has a dating relationship; or (3) would cause a reasonable person to: (A) fear bodily injury or death for himself or herself; (B) fear bodily injury or death for a member of the person’s family or household or for an individual with whom the person has a dating relationship; (C) fear that an offense will be committed against the person’s property; or (D) feel harassed, annoyed, alarmed, abused, tormented, embarrassed, or offended. Tex. Penal Code § 42.072(a).

“Statutory Rape” means non-forcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent. The statutory age of consent in Texas is 17.

Statutory rape under Texas law occurs when, regardless of whether the person knows the age of the child at the time of the offense, the person intentionally and knowingly (A) causes the penetration of the anus or sexual organ of a child by any means; (B) causes the penetration of the mouth of a child by the sexual organ of the actor; (C) causes the sexual organ of the child to contact or penetrate the mouth, anus, or sexual organ of another person, including the actor; (D) causes the anus of a child to contact the mouth, anus, or sexual organ of another person, including the actor; or (E) causes the mouth of a child to contact the anus or sexual organ of another person, including the actor. Tex. Penal Code § 22.011(a)(2).

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT POLICIES

The University’s policies against sexual misconduct are part of the University’s Civil Rights Policies and are overseen by the Office of Civil Rights and Title IX. Complete copies of the Civil Rights Policies are available at https://www.udallas.edu/offices/civil-rights/civil-rights-policies.php

And more information about the Office of Civil Rights and Title IX is available at

udallas.edu/titleix

Supportive Measures

When sexual misconduct is reported, the University’s first priority is to provide assistance to the person who may have experienced the misconduct. The University will consider supportive measures to protect that person and/or the community. An alleged victim is not required to file a formal complaint in order to receive supportive measures.

Supportive measures may include changes in academic, living, or transportation arrangements, working conditions, or other protective measures. The University will make such accommodations or provide such protective measures if requested and if they are reasonably available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the alleged violations to University Police or local law enforcement.

Supportive measures include allowing a student who is an alleged victim or an alleged perpetrator of an incident of sexual harassment, sexual assault, dating violence, or stalking to drop a course without academic penalty if the other party involved in the reported incident is enrolled in the same course.

Supportive measures may be instituted, altered, or revoked by the Office of Civil Rights and Title IX and remain in place until they are altered, revoked, or expire. When interim suspension or administrative leave is imposed, the person will be given the opportunity to explain why suspension or leave should not be imposed.

A victim has the right to choose whether to report a crime to law enforcement, or to decline to report to law enforcement. If a victim decides to report a crime to law enforcement, the University will be available to assist the victim in doing so.

The University will honor any order of protection, No Contact Order, restraining order, or similar lawful order issued by any criminal or civil court.

The University strongly encourages victims of sexual misconduct to go to a hospital for treatment and preservation of evidence, if applicable, as soon as practicable after the incident.

Amnesty

In order to facilitate providing support and assistance to those who may have experienced sexual misconduct, the University generally provides amnesty to those who report sexual misconduct or participate in disciplinary investigations from other code of conduct violations that may have happened during the same event (e.g., underage drinking or open house violations).

Disciplinary Investigations

Upon receiving a formal complaint of sexual misconduct, the Title IX Coordinator will appoint an investigator, who will be responsible for conducting a prompt, fair, and impartial investigation of the report.

The investigator will provide the complainant and respondent notice that the investigation has been opened and a summary of the allegations.

- The complainant is the alleged victim of sexual misconduct.
- The respondent is the alleged perpetrator of sexual misconduct.

Each party may choose an advisor, who may be, but is not required to be, an attorney. A party may have his or her advisor present at any related meeting or proceeding.

The investigator will provide the parties with an equal opportunity to inspect and review any evidence obtained as part of the investigation that is directly related to the allegations raised in the formal complaint. The investigator will make the evidence available to the parties at least ten (10) days prior to issuing the investigation report. The parties may submit a written response to the evidence.

At the conclusion of the investigation, the investigator will submit an investigation report to the Title IX Coordinator and the parties.

Standard of Evidence

The University’s investigative and disciplinary processes presume that an accused person is not responsible for the alleged conduct. A determination regarding responsibility is made at the conclusion of the disciplinary process. The University sustains the allegations if the evidence establishes that it is more likely than not that the accused person committed a violation of the University Civil Rights Policy. The University bears the burden of establishing that there is sufficient evidence.

Disciplinary Hearing & Appeal

At least ten (10) days after issuance of the investigation report, an impartial hearing panel will conduct a live hearing. Each party’s advisor will be permitted to ask the other party and any witnesses all relevant questions and follow-up questions. If a party does not have an advisor, the University will provide one for the hearing. The parties will be provided an equal opportunity to present witnesses and other evidence.

After the hearing, the hearing panel will simultaneously notify the parties of the outcome, as well as of their right to submit an appeal to the Title IX Coordinator.

All of the individuals involved in the investigative and disciplinary process receive annual training on sexual misconduct, the investigation of sexual misconduct, and how to provide a prompt, fair, and impartial resolution process that protects the safety of victims and promotes accountability. The investigation and any disciplinary proceeding will typically be completed within 90 days from receipt of a formal complaint.

Disciplinary sanctions for sexual misconduct may include, but are not limited to, oral or written warning, probation, suspension, expulsion, withholding diploma, revocation of degree, organizational sanctions, performance improvement/management process, required counseling, required training or education, loss of annual pay increase, loss of oversight or supervisory responsibility, demotion, suspension with or without pay, termination, or other sanctions as deemed appropriate.

Informal Resolution

Some situations may be good candidates for informal resolution, which typically does not involve a live hearing and may involve a reduced investigation. No one is required to participate in informal resolution, and each person may end their participation at any time before it is completed. If informal resolution is ended before it is completed, the disciplinary investigation process is resumed.

Retaliation

The University prohibits retaliation against anyone who reports sexual misconduct or participates in the disciplinary investigation. The University will promptly investigate reports of retaliation and will take reasonable steps to prevent or remedy it.
The University seeks to maintain the privacy of those who have experienced sexual misconduct, as well as of those who participate in the investigative process. Generally, the University only discloses information regarding the identity of those involved in sexual misconduct reports (in whatever capacity) when required by law or in order to provide supportive measures.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS ON DATING VIOLENCE, DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT, AND STALKING

“Ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns” means programming, initiatives, and strategies that are sustained over time and focus on increasing understanding of topics relevant to and skills for addressing dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, using a range of strategies with audiences throughout the University.

“Primary prevention programs” means programming, initiatives, and strategies informed by research or assessed for value, effectiveness, or outcome that are intended to stop dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking before they occur through the promotion of positive and healthy behaviors that foster healthy, mutually respectful relationships and sexuality, encourage safe bystander intervention, and seek to change behavior and social norms in healthy and safe directions.

“Risk reduction” means options designed to decrease perpetration and bystander inaction, and to increase empowerment for victims in order to promote safety and to help individuals and communities address conditions that facilitate violence.

PRIMARY PREVENTION PROGRAMS

The University’s primary prevention program for new students is titled “Civil Rights and Sexual Violence: Reporting and Resources.” All new students are required to complete the online program before or during their first semester at the University of Dallas.

The University’s primary prevention program for new employees is titled “Sexual Harassment: Policy and Prevention,” which was developed by SafeColleges. The University is also in the process of developing a new, internally developed program. All new employees are required to complete the online program before or during their first month of employment at the University of Dallas.

ONGOING PREVENTION CAMPAIGNS

The University provides a variety of ongoing prevention and awareness campaigns. Those campaigns can vary from year to year, but typically include at least the following:

- Annual in-person training for all students participating in intercollegiate athletics regarding University policy, Texas law, bystander intervention, risk reduction, and procedures and procedural rights.

- Annual in-person training for all resident assistants, campus activities board members, Rome coordinators, and student Rome residence assistants including, but not limited to, on University policy, Texas law, bystander intervention, risk reduction, and procedures and procedural rights.

- Periodic Alcohol Education Workshops for students who have violated University policy, which includes, but is not limited to, on University policy, Texas law, bystander intervention, risk reduction, and procedures and procedural rights.

STATE INFORMATION ON REGISTERED SEX OFFENDERS

Pursuant to Section 121 of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 (previously 42 U.S.C. § 16921, but now transferred to 34 U.S.C. § 20923), the State of Texas maintains a sex offender registry. The registry may be found online at https://records.txdps.state.tx.us/SexOffender/

The University of Dallas is located in Dallas County, with a zip code of 75062.

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS

The authority to declare a campus state of emergency rests with the President of the University or in the President’s absence, the Executive Vice President. During a State of Emergency the University of Dallas, with the President’s or Vice-President’s authorization, shall place into immediate effect the appropriate procedures necessary to meet the emergency and, to the extent possible, to safeguard persons and property. The Chief of the University of Dallas Police Department or the Chief’s designee shall immediately consult with the President or Vice-President regarding the situation and the possible need for the declaration of a campus state of emergency. EMERGENCY NOTIFICATIONS

Upon confirmation of a significant emergency or dangerous situation involving an immediate threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus (“campus emergency”), the University will, without delay, and taking into account the safety of the community, determine the content that notification to the community should have and initiate the notification system, unless issuing a notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency.

The President or, in the President’s absence, the Executive Vice President, will consult with the University of Dallas Police Department, other appropriate University officials, local law enforcement, or such other persons, as needed, to confirm whether or not a campus emergency exists. Upon confirmation of a campus emergency, the President or the Executive Vice President, when applicable, will initiate the University’s emergency notification system. As part of initiating the University’s emergency notification system, the President, or Executive Vice President, when applicable, will:

- Determine the appropriate segment or segments of the campus community to receive the notification (e.g., notifying all students residing in a specific residence hall or group of residence halls, or all faculty and students scheduled to be in a spe-
Students and employees who elect not to receive emergency notifications from the University are assuming any and all risks associated with or caused by not receiving the emergency notifications.

The Emergency Management Plan designates UDPD as the initial contact for reporting all emergency situations and for response to and resolution of all emergencies. Upon receiving the report of an emergency, the responding officer will determine the appropriate level of response required and will communicate with appropriate personnel at the scene.

The UD emergency notification system was successfully tested twice in 2019.

SUPPLEMENTAL NOTIFICATION

Website. Depending on the particular circumstances of the campus emergency, the University of Dallas Police Department may also post a notification on the UDPD website at:

https://udallas.edu/offices/police/index.php

Surrounding community. The Executive Director for Marketing and Communications is responsible for releasing additional information to the surrounding community, as appropriate.

GUIDELINES FOR WORKING IN A SAFE ENVIRONMENT

The University of Dallas strives to provide a safe and secure working environment for faculty, staff, and students. All employees are expected to report any unsafe conditions to their supervisor and to understand the following safety procedures and processes.
Emergency Preparedness and Communication

Communication during an emergency is critical, and there are four things we ask each member of the University community to do to assist the University:

1. When on campus, call University of Dallas Police Department directly at 972-265-5911. You can call 9-1-1 in the case of emergency and both UDPD and Irving Police will be immediately dispatched. This actually minimizes response time as the University of Dallas Police Department is able to help emergency responders navigate the campus and get to you sooner. Program (972) 265-5911 into your cell phones for on-campus emergencies or dial Ext. 5911 on campus.

2. Update your local and emergency contact information. You may update your information in two ways:
   - Through the University of Dallas Police Department web page:
     https://udallas.edu/offices/police/index.php; or
   - Through BannerWeb,

3. Call home to let your family know you are safe. We expect campus phone lines could be overrun with incoming calls if an emergency occurs in our area or on campus. You can help keep phone lines open and campus operating as normally as possible by calling home and telling your family you are safe.

4. Communicate a designated meeting place to your family. If you choose to leave campus in an emergency, make sure your family knows where you will go if you are not heading home (a colleague’s home, for instance) and how they can reach you there.

Definitions

Tornado/Severe Storm/Severe Storm Watch: This indicates that a tornado or severe thunderstorm is possible until a set time. Severe weather conditions would include the possibility of high winds, hail, funnel clouds, etc. During a watch, you should monitor the weather and be prepared to seek immediate shelter.

Tornado/Severe Storm Warning: This indicates that a tornado or severe storm has been detected by either sight or radar. Be aware that since tornadoes can form quickly, there may not be enough time to issue a warning for those in the immediate area. For this reason, you should be prepared to move quickly.

In general, devices with open flames (candles, etc.) are prohibited in most areas.

All faculty and staff should recognize emergency situations as quickly as possible so preventive measures can be taken. Be familiar with the locations and operation of fire extinguishers near your office and classrooms. The University of Dallas Emergency Preparedness and Communication.
Facilities Department will make arrangements for training in the use of fire extinguishers if so desired.

The first person detecting a fire should:

- Remain calm.

- If time permits, call the University of Dallas Police Department at (972) 265-5911, or Ext. 5911. The dispatcher will confirm notification of the fire on their fire panel and notify the other appropriate individuals.

- Call the Irving Fire Department (911). Identify the building by name and street address.

- Notify others in the immediate area. If time permits, ask that all doors, windows, and openings be closed.

- If circumstances warrant, a portable fire extinguisher may be used. If there is any doubt as to whether the fire can be contained with the use of the portable extinguisher, evacuate the building immediately.

Be prepared to provide information to the University of Dallas Police Department or Irving Police Department and/or Fire Department concerning the fire emergency. Inform these authorities or your floor deputy if you believe there is anyone in danger.

Shelter-In-Place Procedures

If an incident occurs and the buildings or areas become unstable, or if the air outdoors becomes dangerous due to toxic or irritating substances, it is usually safer to stay indoors. Leaving the area may create an exposure to danger. Thus, to “shelter-in-place” means to make a shelter of the building students are in, and with a few adjustments this location can be made even safer and more comfortable until it is safe to go outside.

Basic “Shelter-in-Place” Guidance

If an incident occurs and the building students are in is not damaged, students should stay inside and seek an interior room until notification is received that it is safe to come out. If a building is damaged, students should take personal possessions and follow the evacuation procedures for the building (close the door, proceed to the nearest exit, and use the stairs instead of the elevators). Once students have evacuated, they should seek shelter at the nearest University building quickly. If police or fire department personnel are on the scene, follow their directions. A shelter-in-place notification may come from several sources utilizing the University’s emergency communication tool.

How to “Shelter-In-Place”

No matter where students are, the basic steps of shelter-in-place will generally remain the same. Should the need arise, students should follow these steps, unless instructed otherwise by local emergency personnel:

Students who are inside should stay inside and collect any emergency shelter-in-place supplies and a telephone to be used in case of an emergency. If students are outdoors, they should proceed into the closest building quickly or follow instructions from emergency personnel on the scene.

Students should locate a room to shelter inside. It should be:

- An interior room;

- Above ground level; and

- Without windows or with the least number of windows. If there is a large group of people inside a particular building, several rooms may be necessary.

Once students have located a room to shelter within, they should do the following:

- Shut and lock all windows (tighter seal) and close exterior doors.

- Turn off air conditioners, heaters, and fans, if possible.

- Close vents to ventilation systems as soon as possible.
sible. (University staff will turn off ventilation as quickly as possible.)

- Turn on a radio, TV, use a smart phone, etc. and listen for further instructions.

POLICY ON MISSING STUDENT NOTIFICATION PROCEDURES

If a member of the University community has reason to believe that a student who resides in on-campus housing is missing, he or she should immediately notify the University of Dallas Police Department/Campus Safety Office at 972-721-5305 or residence hall staff, who will forward such reports to UDPD. The University will investigate all reports of missing students made to residence hall staff or the University of Dallas Police Department or Campus Safety Office.

The University requests that all new students voluntarily provide emergency contact information to the Office of Student Affairs at the beginning of each year. This information will remain confidential and is available only to authorized campus officials. It will not be disclosed, except to law enforcement personnel in furtherance of a missing person investigation.

Investigation. The UDPD is responsible for conducting the investigation, in collaboration with the Dean of Students or designee.

The Dean of Students, or designee, will (i) immediately check the assigned room in University-operated housing to determine if the student is present; (ii) attempt to contact the student at all applicable numbers; and (iii) contact the University of Dallas Police Department if the Dean, or designee, is unable to contact the student in a reasonable, timely manner.

Notification. If UDPD determines that the student has been missing over twenty-four (24) hours, the University will, within the next twenty-four (24) hours, notify (i) the individual identified as the student’s emergency contact person; (ii) a parent or guardian, if the student is under eighteen (18) years of age; and (iii) the appropriate law enforcement agency of the determination that a student is missing.

The Dean of Students is responsible for notifying the student’s emergency contact person and, where applicable, the student’s parent or guardian.

The Chief of Police is responsible for notifying the appropriate law enforcement agency.

Missing person reports. The University of Dallas Police Department will comply with applicable state law (see Texas Code of Criminal Procedure, Ch. 63) regarding the investigation and reporting of all missing person reports that it receives.

All residence halls located on the main (Irving) campus of the University of Dallas have fire safety systems that the Campus Safety staff monitors 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

In addition, the University has installed approximately 12 automated external defibrillators (AEDs) throughout campus buildings. UDPD inspects and maintains each unit. Defibrillators will provide a lifesaving electrical shock to victims in cardiac arrest, and can be operated without any training or previous experience. However, AED and CPR training opportunities are available through the UDPD by attending a scheduled class or upon request. UDPD vehicles also carry the devices during patrol in order to provide a timely response.

University of Dallas conducts several levels of fire and life safety inspections in all of the residence hall and apartment facilities.

Fire Safety Information for Residential Facilities

Periodic Inspections. Representatives from the Irving Fire Marshal's office and CSO inspect each building to identify potential deficiencies with emergency lighting, exit signs, corridor obstructions, electrical issues, etc. Depending on the deficiency identified, the Facilities Department will respond and correct the concern in a timely manner.

Pre-Occupancy Inspections. Prior to occupancy of residence halls each fall, spring and summer semester, an in-depth inspection is conducted. These inspections include all common areas, mechanical, electrical, and custodial areas within each building as well as exit paths outside of the facilities.

Post-Occupancy Inspections. After each spring semester, unoccupied rooms are inspected by the Student Affairs staff and the Facilities Department to ensure any fire and life safety deficiencies are noted and corrected in a timely manner.

Random Room Inspections. A representative from the Office of Student Affairs performs random inspections of occupied rooms to evaluate the level of compliance to recognized Fire Code and Residential Guide to Community Living. The intent of these inspections is to increase the level of safety and safety awareness for all occupants of the residence halls. Advance notification of all inspections will be provided to hall staff. These inspections include the review of the following items:

Electrical. Use of extension cords, cover plate missing/damaged, electrical wiring frayed/damaged/crimped, multi adapter without breaker in use, prohibited/unapproved appliances.

Fire Alarm Equipment. Smoke detector obstructed (min. 24" clearance), smoke detector damaged.

Fire Sprinkler Equipment. Storage within 18" of sprinkler head or other obstruction.

Lofts. Being less than 30" from the ceiling, being of poor construction and/or being placed in an unsafe/unapproved location.

Ignition Sources/Combustible Products. Candles/incense being present in the room, flammable liquids in the room, combustible materials near electrical source, and excessive fire load in the room.

Emergency Planning. Absence of the evacuation plan on the back of the room door, window/door obstructed.

Miscellaneous. Poor housekeeping, floor/wall/ceiling penetrations, and the door closure missing/damaged.

Fire Safety Protocols

To minimize the potential of fires, the University prohibits unauthorized open burning and the use of combustible decorations at all times within the residential facilities. Examples of open burning include, but not limited to: candles, incense, bonfires, campfires, barbecue grills, and their related accessories such as gasoline, propane, lighter fluid, charcoal, and pyrotechnics. All decorations and ornaments must consist of fire-resistant or non-combustible material. Decorations should not be posted on any fire protection equipment such as hose cabinets, smoke detectors, fire sprinkler heads or associated piping, fire alarm pull boxes, on or near exits or emergency lights, or exit signs. Decorative lights including holiday lights, as well as floodlights, extension cords, or electrically operated ornaments must be U.L. rated and approved for use.

Restricted Fire-Related Items

Residents are not permitted to possess any of the following:

Portable space heaters, barbeque grills, hibachis, smokers (gas, electric, charcoal), and related accessories including lighter fluids and lighters, and other similar type products (for cooking/warming purposes); candles, incense sticks, and related accessories; hot plates, slow cookers, deep fryers, electric skillets, electric woks, griddles, toaster ovens, rice cookers, convection ovens, fireworks, firecrackers, rockets, flares, sparklers, and other devices, or non-fire retardant artificial trees.

Electrical appliances which are not in excellent working condition are not permitted in the residence halls. The Student Affairs staff reserves the right to inspect all electrical items at any time to determine the safety of each appliance or item.

Electrical cords must be free of all flaws. It is the student's responsibility to ensure that all permissible electrical items are in safe and operable condition. All electrical cords must be disconnected during school breaks and/or when University Housing is officially closed.

Any of these appliances found during routine inspections must be removed immediately. Any second incidents will result in administrative and/or disciplinary action. Students should be aware items not included in the above list may also be prohibited. Students should check with their Residential Coordinator before bringing an unlisted item into University Housing. The electrical systems in University residential facilities have definite limitations. Overloading these systems can present fire and safety hazards. Heavy-duty, single-outlet surge protectors no more than six (6) feet long are permissible. However, other types of extension cords (light duty; gang outlets, etc.) are not allowed.

Any resident found to be exceeding the electrical capacity of their room/apartment will have restrictions placed on their use of the electrical system.
Other Restricted Items. Firearms, knives, arrows, bows, paintball guns, air soft guns, sling shots, spear guns, or any other weapon(s) and ammunition are not allowed in University Housing or anywhere else on University property; however, small pocket knives and table knives are allowed. Possession of such items is considered to be a serious infraction. Students who fail to uphold this standard are subject to administrative and/or disciplinary action which will include removal from University Housing. The possession and/or detonation of any explosive device, including all forms of fireworks, are strictly prohibited. Possession/use of such items is considered to be a serious infraction of the University Student Code of Conduct and state law. Students who fail to uphold this code are subject to disciplinary action which may include removal from University Housing as well as a referral to the University Police Department for possible criminal prosecution.

Restricted Fire-Related Activities. The lighting and burning of candles, incense, potpourri, cigarettes or anything requiring an open flame is prohibited in any residential facility. Violations may result in administrative and/or disciplinary action.

Residents are expected to comply with these guidelines. Those who fail to do so will be subject to action by Student Affairs. This may include but is not limited to confiscation of unauthorized property, official administrative and/or disciplinary action to the University Police Department for possible criminal prosecution.

Any individual who fails to evacuate a building after a fire alarm has sounded may be subject to appropriate administrative and/or disciplinary action.

Any individual who misuses or tampers with fire protection equipment (smoke detectors, pull stations, fire alarms, fire extinguishers or automatic door closers) may be subject to University administrative and/or disciplinary action in addition to being assessed a monetary charge for the cost of repair or replacement of misused or damaged equipment, cleaning of the facility and damage to other property. In addition, tampering with fire protection equipment is a felony offense under State law and may be prosecuted as such.

Any fires, including those that were quickly extinguished, or any evidence of recent fires must be reported immediately to a Resident Coordinator staff member or the University of Dallas Police Department at 972-721-5305, who will document the incident as required and perform a follow-up investigation. Additional campus fire safety information can be found at the following address:

Fire Drill and Evacuation Procedures

Emergency evacuation drills are conducted each fall and spring semester. The University uses the drills to both educate and remind the residents of the proper evacuation procedure and to survey the facility for any non-functional devices.

The evacuation drills are coordinated by the University of Dallas Police Department each fall and spring semester for all campus residential facilities. Thus, the emergency evacuation procedures are tested at least twice each year. Students learn the locations of the emergency exits in the buildings and are provided guidance about the direction they should travel when exiting each facility for a short-term building evacuation. UDPD does not tell residents in advance about the designated long-term evacuations because those decisions are affected by the time of day, location of the building being evacuated, the availability of the various designated emergency gathering locations on campus, and other factors such as the location and nature of the threat. In both cases, UDPD and Student Affairs staff on the scene will communicate information to students regarding the developing situation or any evacuation status changes.

The purpose of the drills is to prepare building occupants for an organized evacuation in case of an emergency. All fire drills are unannounced. These evacuation drills are used as a way to educate and train occupants on issues specific to their facility. During the drill, occupants “practice” drill procedures and familiarize themselves with the location of exits and the sound of the fire alarm. In addition to educating the occupants of each building about the evacuation procedures during the drills, the process also provides the University an opportunity to test the operation of the fire alarm system components. Any deficient equipment is noted so that appropriate repairs can be performed.

Additionally, students receive emergency information and procedures during their hall meetings.

Fire Safety Education and Training

Basic fire safety instruction is provided to students during hall meetings at the beginning of each fall and spring semester. Residence hall staff members receive additional intensive and comprehensive fire safety training each fall. Fire Extinguisher training is offered to faculty, staff and students when requested.
