5.40-5.41 COPYRIGHT AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY COMMITTEE

Nominated by: Faculty Senate, Appointed by President

Final List: September 15

Location: Faculty Handbook, 5.40-5.41

Meets: As called.

Purpose: The Copyright and Intellectual Property Committee addresses questions and disputes regarding copyright and intellectual property. The Committee also hears and advises the administration on proposed additions to or changes in the copyright and intellectual property policy. The duties of the Committee include, but are not limited to, working with the relevant copy centers to help provide faculty and students with the means to respect the copyright of others creating and maintaining materials to educate faculty and students on the use of copyrighted material, and informing faculty and students of changes in copyright and intellectual property legislation.

Membership: The President of the University appoints three faculty members from a list of five nominees provided by the Faculty Senate. Appointments to the Committee are on a two-year rotating basis with at least one member serving as a carry-over from the previous year.

5.42-5.43 COMMITTEE ON THE FACULTY HANDBOOK

Nominated by: Faculty Senate, Appointed by the President

Final List: September 15

Location: Faculty Handbook, 5.42-5.43

Meets: As needed.

Purpose: It coordinates all changes to the Faculty Handbook, in accordance with the procedures outlined in the Foreword. (i) Thus, in the case of a minor change, the President will inform the Committee as soon as he or she has authorized such a change. The Committee on the Faculty Handbook will then incorporate the change into the Handbook and advise the faculty that the amendment has occurred. (ii) In the case of a change initiated by the Faculty Senate, the vice chair of the Senate will advise the Committee of the change that has been recommended; the Committee will then submit the proposed change to the University Council for its consideration. If it is approved, the President will submit the change to the Board and advise the Committee in a timely manner of the Board's decision. In the case of approval, the Committee will incorporate the change into the Handbook and advise the faculty that an amendment has occurred. (iii) In the case of a change initiated by the President, the President or his designee shall inform the Committee on the Faculty Handbook when he or she submits an amendment to the University Council for consideration and, subsequently, on the outcome of the Council’s deliberations. If the change advances to the Faculty Senate for its review, the vice chair of the Senate shall inform the Committee on the status of the Senate’s deliberations. The President (or his designee) shall promptly inform the Committee on the final decision of the Board. In the case of approval, the Committee will incorporate the change into the Handbook and advise the faculty that an amendment has occurred. 5.42.b The Committee on the Faculty Handbook is responsible for maintaining an up-to-date copy of the Handbook that reflects all amendments which have received final approval. While the up-to-date text of the Handbook may be made available online, the authoritative copy shall be a printed one maintained by the Committee on the Faculty Handbook. This copy, marked with the date of the latest amendment, shall be available for consultation in the University Archives.

5.42.c The Committee on the Faculty Handbook will periodically conduct workshops to acquaint the faculty with particularly important provisions of the Handbook, or to explain significant amendments. Such workshops shall be conducted at the beginning of each academic year for new faculty members and otherwise as needed.

Membership: This committee consists of three members: The Provost (or his or her designee), the vice chair of the Faculty Senate, and one faculty member appointed by the President from among the Faculty Senate’s minimum of three nominees. The committee is chaired by the vice chair of the Faculty Senate.
