Institute, concentration in _____

Language: _____

I request permission to fulfill my first, second, third language requirement by option
 1, 2, 3, 4:

1. By taking and passing a written examination in a language. (This examination may be the final examination in the special language courses offered for graduate students.) Dates for particular languages are announced in the Graduate calendar.

2. In the classical languages only, by passing a written examination on material from a classic text pertinent to the student's concentration and agreed upon by the Concentration Director and the Institute Director.

3. By taking an upper level (3000+) course (other than the special reading courses) at the University of Dallas in the literature of the language in question and by passing with a grade of B or better (students with a bachelors degree from the University of Dallas may fulfill the requirement with courses taken at the university no more than three years prior to admission into the Braniff Graduate School). Request for this option should be made prior to registration for the course. Upon completion, the student should submit an unofficial transcript to the Graduate Coordinator.
